We Present

.....the 1936 INDEX, an edition into which we have endeavored to incorporate the principle of new and progressive design. In this book we part from tradition; we strive to produce something new and fundamentally different in yearbook construction.

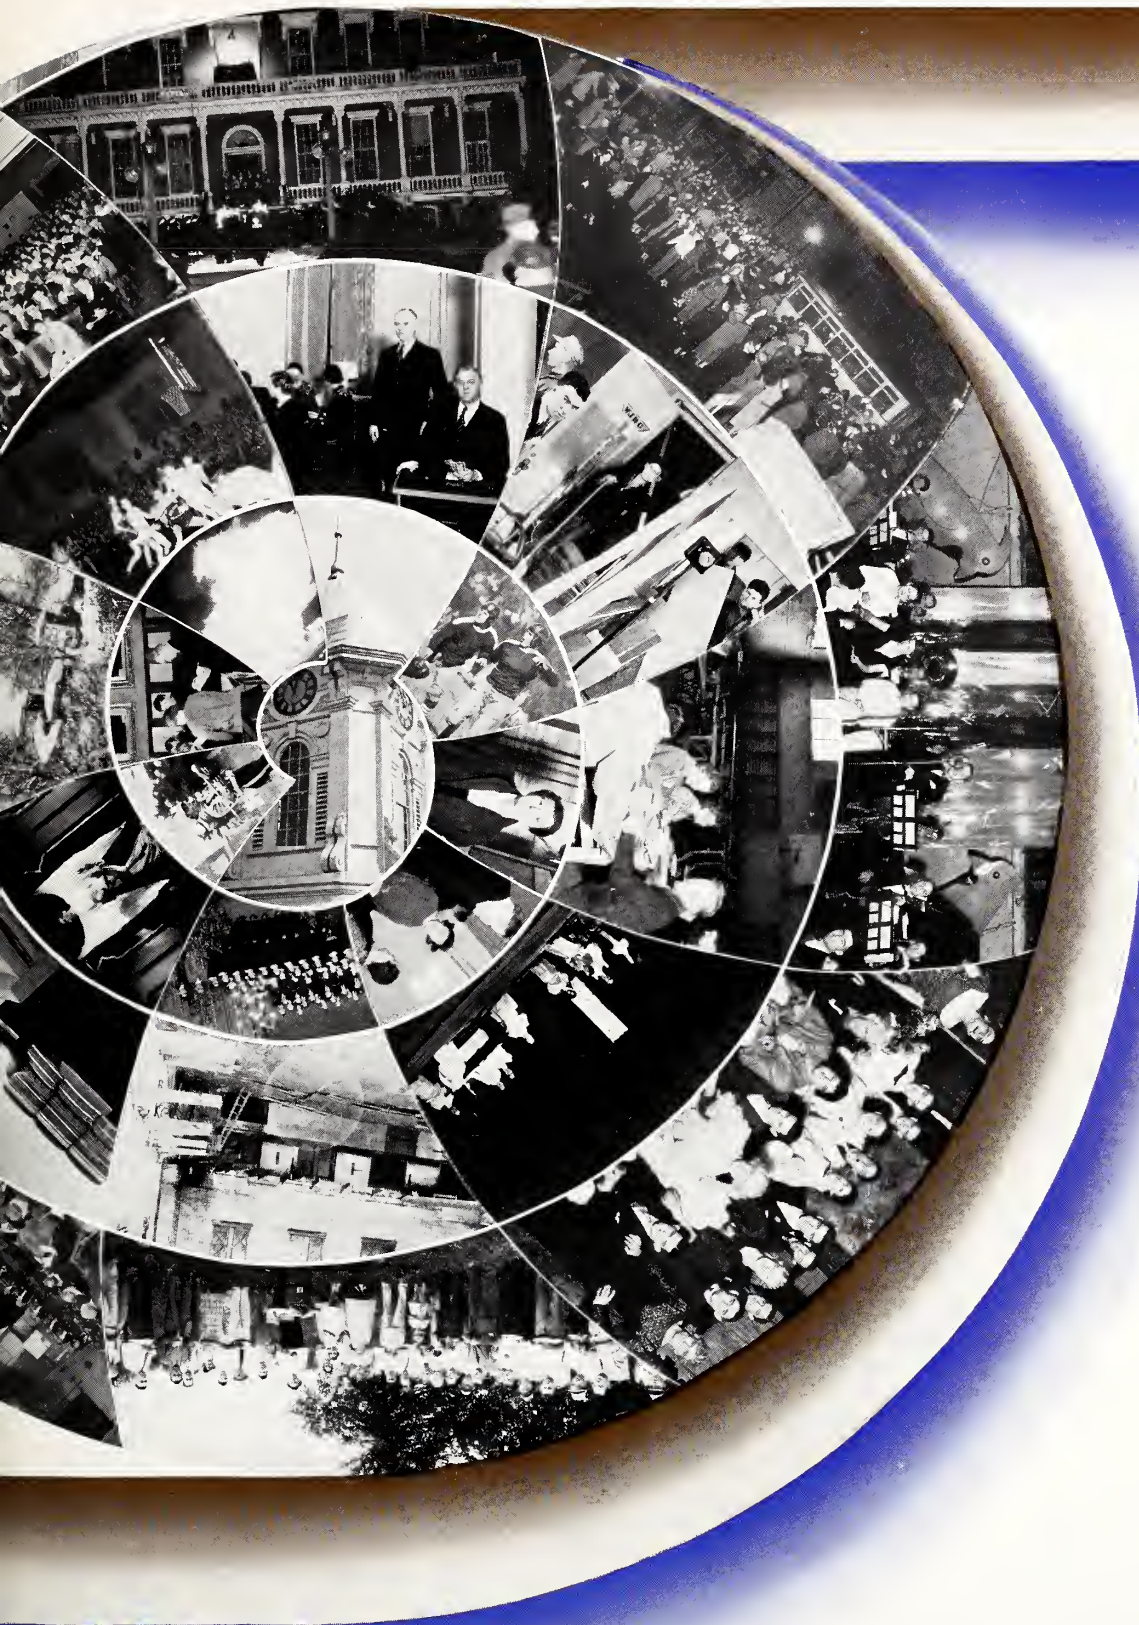

In any publication of this type many of the embryonic ideas and plans are both altered and obsoleted before the issue reaches the press.

With this in mind, this book is presented for the approval of the student body..... and we hope that it will be cosmopolitan to such a degree that each individual will find something to merit his consideration.

THE INDEX

Modern typography and modern layouts advertise themselves.
Psychologically, a well-planned page initiates, sustains, and satisfies the desire for information.

Script

Continuity

We have divided this book into three distinct units: The University—The People—and The Year, and we feel that these will express themselves in an adequate manner as one progresses through the annual.

Normal

"Under the provisions of the Civil Administration Code the Illinois State Normal University is governed by a board consisting of eleven members known as the Normal School Board. The Director of Registration and Education is ex-officio chairman of the Normal School Board....."

 CHARLES KIPPENHAN, Associate Editor

The beginning of the year brought out some seventy-five applicants for various positions on the staff. We tried to organize the work into three main units—the editorial, or literary staff; the business, or finance staff; and the layout staff. We had planned originally to set up the work in such a way that there would be a minimum of overlapping in the various departments. In some cases, particularly at the beginning of the year, that system was followed. Toward the end of the year, however—

We tried to gain such written information from the applicants as would prove useful to us in grouping them into one of the three departments. We based most of our decisions upon the previous experiences and qualifications indicated, with due consideration to preferences and interests shown for one or more of the three departments. Not in every case did we choose those who had had previous experience—in every project one can benefit, or if not benefit, must learn by trial the possibilities and qualifications of those in service.

We tried to inaugurate an apprenticeship system whereby the succeeding editor must have worked with the present editor as his associate. We feel that an apprenticeship plan will make the publication of the yearbook an easier job for the new editor, as well as the new staff and all concerned, if the special situation and conditions are known and have been encountered in service before the whole responsibility rests on that new editor's shoulders.

The book this year is truly a student publication. Practically all of the ideas have been created by the staff, and all of the mechanical work has been done by the staff. No "commercial" layouts have been permitted in the publication. An interpretation of modern, good style has been the basis for the layouts and arrangement of the book throughout.

We have worked toward raising the standards of the yearbook in the Teachers' College. Many goals have been set—some have been reached—some missed. Recompense for the services of the editor and business manager, with full staff cooperation available at all times has been our express expectation for future editors. We believe that the time is not far removed when a position on the yearbook staff, in any capacity, will be raised above the consideration of the average "office-seeker."

What few things have been said here should merit some consideration and thought. The order and system of things is constantly changing. Some changes are vastly beneficial. We hope that those who pause to read here will not think lightly of the material presented.

The University Senate is a relatively new organization on the campus of Illinois State Normal University, being organized on April 8, 1935. Its purpose as stated by the school administration is to provide an executive group from the faculty to aid in the initiation and furtherance of administrative policies, thus making a wide range of ideas and reactions available in the best interests of the University.

It has been felt that the group, consisting of directors of divisions, heads of departments, the various deans, the registrar, and other administrative officers, could better take initial steps, from the standpoint of economy of time, on some problems that could later be referred to the faculty as a whole. Among some of the matters discussed and presented to the faculty which have had a bearing upon the work of the University during the present school year are the improvement of student elections, preparation of school calendar, a new grading system, regulations and plans for student attendance and absence, student forum, examination schedules, a selective admission program, and other matters looking toward the improvement of working conditions in the University.

RURAL SCHOOLS

.....The Houghton School has been affiliated since 1926. It is located two miles south on route 55. The school maintains two rooms with four grades in each. The building is modern, well decorated, and progressive in its curriculum and teaching methods. The Little Brick School is located on the west edge of Bloomington and is more suburban than rural. It maintains six grades and the enrollment usually runs to thirty or more pupils. It has been affiliated since 1927. The Grove School is located three miles northeast of Normal on route 66. It was affiliated in 1934 and is a typical one-teacher school with a small enrollment. The Maple Grove School became affiliated with the University in September 1935. It is located on East Oakland Avenue and is a new building with modern furniture and heating equipment—a modern one-teacher school.

HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE

.....Since 1931 the Home Economics Department has maintained a home management house as a part of the training of vocational home making teachers. In the beginning a furnished house was rented during the spring term, but for two years the residence at 408 West Mulberry Street has been leased for the entire time. Senior home economics students in groups of four or five live in the house for a period of nine weeks and gain experience in group living and family adjustment. The chief functions of such a course are technological, economic, and social. The house serves as a social center for all home economics students on the campus.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To inaugurate the new year, the Student Council aided the faculty in welcoming the Freshmen to the campus by helping with the Freshman Mix. Next came the newly instituted annual All-school Fall Election at which time the class officers were elected. This replaced the old "class meeting" election. This election was preceded by an assembly program at which the candidates were introduced in a "Night-flier" atmosphere of the I.S.N.U. Night Club. In the middle of November, the Student Council invited the members of the faculty to a reception held in the Student Lounge. Early in February, the I.S.N.U. Student Council joined the Little Nineteen Student Council Conference and Charles Lane and Marjorie Mayne attended the first meeting held at Illinois Wesleyan University. Later in this month, the Student Council, in an effort to re-establish strictly formal parties on the campus, sponsored a Winter Formal Dance at Fell Hall featuring Lang Thompson. May 6, the council sponsored an assembly introducing the candidates for President of the Student Council for next year. May 8, I.S.N.U.'s Student Council played host to the Little Nineteen Student Council Conference. On May 13, the Council managed the annual spring All-school election when members to the council and the various boards on the campus were elected.

Wedge in between these major activities the council managed the Student Lounge, purchasing electric grill, electric clock, radio, furniture, and took care of the cleaning bills and insurance. They introduced and sponsored, appointing George L. Scott chairman, the Student Forum, a young, but growing institution of the campus. The council often represented student opinion in conferences with the administration and faculty and suggested changes in the cut system, book store, and other minor student "gripes." Four members of the council constituted the student portion of the Assembly Board. Alice McGuire was chairman of the point system and shall complete a revised and more comprehensive system to be used in the future.

The members of the Student Council are: John Sheahan, President; Alice McGuire, Vice-president; John Hodge, Secretary; Marjorie Mayne, Chairman of the Student Lounge, Eunice Robbins, Social Chairman; Geraldine Dooley, Press Correspondent; Leonard Keefe, Charles Lane, Robert Koehler, Joe McReynolds, Paul Hudelson, Mariada Duesing, Louise Huff, Wayne Van Huss, and James McCreedy. Dr. C. A. DeYoung is advisor to the Council.

—John Sheahan

ENTERTAINMENT BOARD

The Entertainment Board presents lecture course numbers and weekly movies on the money allowed it from the student activities fund by the Apportionment Board.

On October 16, Frances E. Perkins, Secretary of Labor, spoke before a capacity audience in Capen Auditorium. Following her lecture, an enthusiastic reception was held in her honor at Fell Hall. On November 4, the Don Cossack Chorus presented a concert before a large and appreciative audience in the gymnasium. On February 17, the popular St. Louis Symphony Orchestra appeared in the gymnasium for its third engagement on the campus as a lecture course number. On March 16, Major Chester

L. Fordney, U.S.M., spoke in Capen Auditorium on his experiences in the stratosphere flight which he and Commander T. G. W. Settle made in 1933. On March 26, Mrs. Induk Pak spoke on her native Korea. Carl Sandburg's appearance in April concluded the lecture course.

The movies shown weekly were too numerous to name here, but the Board tried to provide entertaining and educational programs for the three week-end shows which were always well attended.

Members of the Entertainment Board this year are Mr. Linkins, chairman, Maurine Blum, secretary, Miss Boicourt, Miss Guffroy, Mrs. Pricer, Mr. Beyer, Mr. Cross, Geneva Allen, Joe Citron, John Higgins, Donald Hughes, and Joe McReynolds.

—Maurine Blum

APPORTIONMENT BOARD

This Board, consisting of Mr. Charles A. Harper of the Department of Social Science, Chairman; Mr. Charles Davis '36, Miss Maurine Blum '36, Miss Alice McGuire '36, Mr. Ralph Wilson '38, Mr. Walter Bunn '36, President R. W. Fairchild, Mrs. Stella Henderson of the Department of Education, Miss Josephine Ross of the Department of Home Economics, and Howard W. Adams, Secretary, has for its function the distribution of Student Activity Fees among the various all-school organizations. These include the class organizations, the Movies, the University Theater, Forensics, Assemblies, Women's Athletic Association, Women's League, Social Activities, Women's Glee Club, Orchestra, Band, Index, Lecture Board, Vidette, University Club, Student Council, Orchestis, and Reserve and General Expense Funds, totalling $5.25 per fee. In addition, the Board allocates $1.00 per student for Health and Hospitalization, and $3.75 for Athletics, making a grand total of $10.00 per student per semester.

The Board also apportions Student Activity Fees of the Summer Term. During the year ending June 30 last, collections totalled more than $18,600 exclusive of those of the University High School, while in the interval from June 30 to date this fiscal year, the total is near $22,000.

The accountant of the fees is Miss Ferne Roseman who both receives and disburses the money, and who renders an annual account to the Normal School Board. Payments from the fund are made by her by checks upon the basis of vouchers issued by the organization concerned and certified by the faculty sponsor of the organization.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE BOARD

The University Theatre Board consists of Virginia Abbott, Muriel McKinney, Robert Millay, Catherine Morgan, Clifford Scott, Grace Siffert, Gertrude Stewart, Ralph Wilson, and the faculty advisor, Miss Mabel Clare Allen. These various members are heads of committees and are in charge of the activities of all dramatic work of the school. The activities of the board are both administrative and technical in nature. When any production is scheduled, these chairmen act as advisors and helpers to the committeemen appointed for that specific play. They cooperate with Jesters, Theta Alpha Phi, Blackfriars, and Children's Theatre in producing and staging their plays. They have charge of construction and maintenance of all materials used in stagecraft. An appropriation, through the student activity fund, is allowed each year for the financing of these dramatic endeavors. A complete scene shop and construction room is maintained in the "Dungeon" in the basement of the heating plant. Storage bins for costumes, properties, lighting equipment, and other paraphernalia have been arranged on the stage in Capen Auditorium and in the dressing rooms.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The Athletic Board is composed of fourteen members: five students and nine faculty. Margaret Nafziger, Senior; Glenn Jacquat, Junior; Laverne Christensen, Sophomore; Elden Hitchens and Francis Griffin, Freshmen, make up the student representatives. The faculty group is made up of Margaret Barto, R. W. Fogler, H. J. Hancock, C. E. Harpster, C. E. Horton, Chairman C. W. Hudelson, Esther Hume, H. O. Lathrop, and R. M. Stombaugh.

The chief functions of the Board are to determine athletic policies, to approve schedules, and to vote upon awards submitted by the coaches.

They also gave a banquet for the Cross Country and Football teams at Fell Hall in December. At this meeting all members of both squads were invited.

The guest speaker of the evening was Professor John Schommer of Armour Institute of Technology. Other speakers on the program were President Fairchild; Mr. William E. Bach; J. T. Cogdal Cross Country Coach; and H. J. Hancock, Football Coach. Mr. Clyde Hudelson served as toastmaster.

In May the Athletic Board feted the Basketball, Wrestling and spring sports teams with a luncheon-dance at Maplewood Country Club. At this meeting the letter winners of the various sports were read and the captains of the various teams were elected and announced for the next year. After the dinner and business session dancing was enjoyed.

The Board always holds several meetings during the year.

—Margaret Nafziger

FORENSIC BOARD

The Forensic Board is the governing body of all intercollegiate forensic activity engaged in by representatives of Illinois State Normal University. It is composed of three students and eight faculty members, in addition to ex-officio members, President Fairchild and Dean Schroeder. The student representatives are: Virginia Abbott, Dwane Kidd, Irene Hagan; the faculty representatives are: Mable Clare Allen, C. A. Harper, Ruth Henline, F. L. D. Holmes, chairman, T. J. Lancaster, F. S. Sorrenson, L. L. Tasher, and R. V. Yates.

The Forensic Board has brought to the campus two debate teams from island regions, one from Oxford University in November, and one from the University of Hawaii in April. The Fourth Invitational Debate Tournament was sponsored and about eighty guests from other colleges were entertained at dinner, and at the Cradle Song (Courtesy of Theta Alpha Phi). Nine debaters representing I.S.N.U. participated in a Debate Tournament held at Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. Seven debaters, orators, and extempore speakers took part in the Eleventh Biennial Convention of Pi Kappa Delta Debate and Forensic Tournament at Houston, Texas, March 30 to April 3. I.S.N.U., acting as host, entertained the first Illinois Intercollegiate Debate Tournament on March 13 and 14. During the year debate teams from Waynesburg College, Pa., Cornell College, Ia., The Principia, Elmhurst, Ill., Macomb Teachers, and MacMurray College have met in debate on our campus. Normal teams have visited Eastern State Teachers, James Millikin University, and Illinois Wesleyan University for practice debates.

Illinois State Normal was represented this year in the State Peace Oratorical Contest by Robert Turner. In the Annual Illinois Oratorical Contest, he was also the representative, in the Men's Division, in which he won second place with his oration, "Dollars and Sense." Margery Mayne was representative in the Women's Division with "Home Sweet Home?"

Two receptions were given during the year for which Virginia Abbott acted as Chairman of Arrangements. One was for the Oxford Debaters, the other for those representing the University of Hawaii.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Early last fall, when faculty committees were being appointed by President Fairchild, there was created a standing faculty committee on publications. Its function was to be primarily the establishment and perpetuation of general policy concerning THE VIDETTE, THE INDEX, and THE ALUMNI QUARTERLY. One of its first acts, for example, was the appointment of a student-faculty committee to be known as the Publications Board, the duties of which were to elect staffs for the school publications and to pass on more immediate policies and to transact more immediate business.

The new set-up was intended to divide the responsibilities inherent in school publications and to provide stability and long-sight planning for organs which are essentially of greater concern to the continuing institution than to the transitory staffs.

The faculty committee was made up of Paul Royalty, chairman; Elsie Brenneman, secretary; George Palmer, Harry Admire, Esther Vinson, Thomas Lancaster, and Janet K. Smith. President Fairchild and Dean Schroeder are ex-officio members of all faculty committees.

At the first meeting, Nov. 5, 1935, this committee heard reports from the editors and business managers of the school paper and yearbook, and passed on a number of proposals by the sponsors. The chief business of the meeting, however, was the appointment of the first publications board. For one year at least, the board was to consist of eight members, the sponsor, editor, and business manager of the VIDETTE and the INDEX and Harry F. Admire and Miss Esther Vinson.

This board has established the qualifications for membership on the staffs of the publications, and has selected editors and business managers for 1936-37.

STUDENT ACTIVITY BOARD

The Student Activity Board is composed of three faculty members and three student members.

The board, with the aid of student committees, keeps a file of the extra-curricular activities of all students in school. Each activity is recorded with the number of points awarded it by the points system. The names of students who acquired more than fifteen points during the first semester were placed on the Student Activity Honor Roll.

A revision of the points system was worked on during the second semester. The new system will be more suitable for use on the semester basis than the old plan.

The members of the board are: Dr. R. U. Gooding, Miss O. Lillian Barton, Dr. Laila Skinner, Alice McGuire, Lois Dunmire, Donald Holley.

—Lois Dunmire

ASSEMBLY BOARD

The Assembly Board, composed of faculty and student representatives, had as its year's objectives (1) programs of varied interests, (2) more student programs, and (3) fewer announcements.

Interesting student programs were given by the "N" Club, Jesters, Fell Hall residents, Gamma Phi, Negro students, Women's League, Southern Melodies Quartet, Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, Concert Band, University Orchestra, Philadelphian and Wrightonian Literary Societies, and Student Council.

Syncopated rhythms were played by the two orchestras under student leadership, Dale Miller and his Orchestra and Jack Higgins and his Orchestra. An original play, "The Trial of Duff Armstrong," written by Professor C. F. Malmberg was presented by a group of campus Thespians on February 12 in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday.

One of the most interesting speakers of the year was Dr. Abram L. Sachar, national director of the Hillel Foundation, who gave a stirring talk on peace. Father O'Brien of the Newman Foundation at the University of Illinois gave an inspiring religious address. Dr. Hodgins of the Wesleyan faculty read some very amusing dramatic skits and the Apollo Glee Club of Wesleyan sang very harmoniously. Madame Strykow-Rider appeared as a guest artist with the University orchestra and played brilliantly on the piano.

Miss Peters of the commerce department gave a vivid and picturesque description of her trip to Russia this summer. Coach Hancock gave a talk on football techniques illustrated with a moving picture film. Professor Beyer, Professor Harper, Dr. Tasher, and Dr. Marshall of the social science department presented current event topics on Ethiopia and World Peace. Miss Ruth Yates of the speech department gave some dramatic readings. President Fairchild talked at frequent intervals about administrative affairs and of student activities on other campuses visited by him.

The programs were of a varied enough nature to appeal to the interests of the majority of the student body.

SMALL GROUPINGS

Small groupings are characteristic of human beings. As the groups become smaller, relationships become more intimate and are remembered longer than casual friendships formed in larger groups.

Although the groups that make up one's fellow-majors are not the smallest groups found on the campus they afford perhaps more familiarity than do the other groups. One's interests lie with the people of one's major field to a greater degree than with the people of one's class.

Incidents to be remembered occur more frequently in the associations, class and lab recitations, parties, and "sessions" of a curriculum than of the class. The loyalty to a class name changes each year . . . the loyalty to one's major field generally increases proportionately each year.

For these and other reasons the grouping of the people in this section of the book is by Divisions, sub-divided into curricula, rather than by classes.

The colors found on the tassels of the caps of the graduates are the representative colors of the divisions, and have been incorporated on the division pages hereafter.

May this section of the book help to recall unwritten and unpictured memories which can be carried into the future, regardless of time, place, or occupation.

SHEARINGS FROM "DOC" GOODING'S SHEEP

Hello, Ladies and Gentlemen. This is station I.S.N.U. broadcasting the FINAL program of the Class of '36. TONIGHT we have many interesting things to tell you so WE might as well get started. The other day, I asked LESLIE BUEHLER what he DISLIKED most about his classes. "Well," he says, "I GUESS it must have been in DEAN LINKINS' class when I was a FRESHMAN, and we had to sew all the RABBITS and FROGS up after we DISSECTED them." Speaking of freshmen, REMEMBER the FIRST dance we had? Everybody was AFRAID to get into the GRAND MARCH except ERNIE BAIR, JOE REID, WALTER BUNN, and the other FELLAS who later got the "FELL HALL HABIT."

Mentioning rabbits makes me THINK of the Class of '36. It seems to me that the ADMINISTRATION has used us for EXPERIMENTAL purposes ever since we started. We were the first to get CON CIV, HISTORY OF CIV, NATURAL SCIENCE, and yes, DEAR old ORIENTATION, not to speak of HYGIENE. We are the first class to GRADUATE under the SEMESTER basis. Perhaps that's why MORE than HALF of us went to summer school to GET OUT.

Now let me INTRODUCE the HARMONY Quartet composed of RICHARD NOBLE, CHARLES LANE, and those two PERPETUAL seniors, HENRY C., and GEORGE L. SCOTT. They will SING two numbers, "How Dry I Am," and "There Was a Tavern in the Town." Their accompanist, C. WORTHINGTON WEBB, has FINALLY forsaken his AVERSION to playing jazz just this once, because he SAYS he won't be around here long ANYHOW.

Now that they are THROUGH, I'd like to tell you a story I heard about the Physical Ed. boys the other day. It seems that in his Junior year REX DARLING is giving a REPORT. Looking BACK he sees that BARCLAY and WIN BATES are FAST asleep. "Hey, NAFFZIGER," says DARLING, "Wake up BARCLAY." "Wake him up yourself," says FRITZ, "You put him to SLEEP." But the FUNNY part of it is that when the BELL rings the whole class gets up and leaves BATES sleeping. JOHN (HAVE-A-CIGAR) WELDON, however, takes the CAKE. In one of his social science classes he was asked to TELL about the 'September massacres.' "Well," says WELDON, "they happened in AUGUST, but I don't REMEMBER the YEAR."

Now I'd like to introduce TOM BENTON, and RAY NEWTON singing that magnificent, stupendous HIT, 'One Little Kiss,' from the dazzling, glamorous show PRODUCED by the Blackfriars, 'S Funny Thing! These boys IMPERSONATED girls so well that it made TISH ZAFFZIGER, MARJORIE MAYNE, POLLY SMITH, and some other girls JEALOUS because they were so POPULAR. Following this song will be a CONCERT by the dance orchestras of JACK (J.R.) HIGGINS and DALE (MAESTRO) MILLER. MILLER'S theme song is the Physical Examination song, 'From the Top of Your Head to the Tips of Your Toes.' HIGGINS' theme song is the Charity Song, 'He Asked for Bread and the Curtain Came Down with a Roll.' I don't know what the University Club would do WITHOUT these boys.

WENDELL GREGORY and JOHNNY SHEAHAN were telling me the other day about the SWELL time they had DECORATING the gym for our first sophomore dance. According to them they SPENT the whole day there just POLISHING the floor. Maybe that's where they got the experience for the polishing they are doing NOW. Speaking from PERSONAL experience, however, the Junior-Senior Prom was the BEST dance we sponsored, even if there was a LOT of work. Talk about a ROSE between two thorns, seems to me that there were FOUR thorns to EVERY rose. That dinner that "DOC" AND MRS. GOODING threw for us made up for it. THREE cheers and a BOUQUET to the GOODINGS.

Here's an ANNOUNCEMENT which I am sure all seniors listening in will be GLAD to hear. "The Faculty of Illinois State University wish to invite all seniors to a SERIES of afternoon TEAS to be held the next few Sundays." Many of the seniors will remember the tea at MR. FOGLER'S when he ANNOUNCED that all those on probation could have SECONDS. A lot of them GOT seconds, too. I'd advise the freshmen, sophomores, and even the juniors to ATTEND these teas as it is a sure-fire method for a good grade—that is—if your MANNERS are good.

Now it is time for some more MUSIC. This time it's the "Two Little Girls in Blue," otherwise known as LUCY and NELLE SMITH. NELLE does the VOCALIZING with LUCY at the piano. Their first number will be 'Back Home in Indiana,' followed by 'Who's Sorry Now?' These girls have what it takes to get AROUND the Commerce instructors so they SHOULD succeed equally well in the wide, wide, world.

Someone asked me the other day if TOM BENTON knew how to BLOW out a kerosene lamp yet. It seems that TOM, with other members of this class, among them COX, NEWTON, BUNN, DAVIS, went on the Glee Club Tour. When they stayed ALL night at Dwight, BENTON and DAVIS had to stay out in the COUNTRY, where, of course, there were no electric LIGHTS. BENTON came home AFTER everybody was asleep. He couldn't LIGHT the lamp, and after he did get it lighted—couldn't BLOW it out. He'll never live it DOWN.

Pardon me just a moment folks, it looks as if there were an ARGUMENT between BOB and ART MILLER, and WAYNE MAURER—and over a POKER game, too. I'm ASHAMED of you boys.

Well, it looks as if our time for this broadcast is ABOUT over. Sometimes we've WONDERED whether it's been WORTH while, but after all, with a DEPRESSION on, one might as well go to school as ANYTHING else. What's a LITTLE matter of FOUR years out of one's life? After all, there's PLENTY more where they came from. In conclusion, the Class of '36 would like to THANK the FACULTY, TOWNSPEOPLE—in fact ALL who made the four years' stay an ENJOYABLE one.

HELEN KENT and a chorus of TWO hundred will CLOSE this program with the singing of "Farewell to Thee." At the sound of the MUSICAL note it will be June 11, 1936.

By Charles Davis

FOGLER'S CLOCKS UNWIND

The night of February 29, 1936, witnessed a great UNSUSPECTED CONCLAVE upon the campus of I.S.N.U. Every four years on that date, all of the CLOCKS on the campus have a convention to DISCUSS the progress, or LACK of it, made under their supervision. This is always a SOLEMN affair to begin with, but gradually DEGENERATES into an exchange of GOSSIP. Old Main clock presides, and the clocks from the various classrooms assemble on the quadrangle in FRONT of the LIBRARY. Each contributes a SHARE to the NEWS of the years. The classes, and even INDIVIDUALS, are discussed as each clock has a large STORE of memories upon which to draw. WE, as juniors, are PRIMARILY interested in the discussion of our group.

The clocks from the MAIN BUILDING, holding THEMSELVES somewhat ALOOF, gave revealing contributions in many cases. The clock in M310, the French room, grew WHIMSICALLY reminiscent and told SEVERAL memories which amused his hearers: of how MRS. TAYLOR'S Shakespeare class, although REGULARLY commencing on time, could not assume WHOLE-HEARTED attention until the arrival of HELEN SATTERWHITE, ALWAYS late, gave the necessary attendance for the study of WILL'S plays. The same clock SMILED over the memories of MISS ELLIS' French classes; of how poor Eugenie Grandet was DISSECTED by UNFEELING students, but loyally upheld by EMILY ANN COFFMAN.

The clock from the MUSIC room of the same floor, gave a DELIGHTFUL impersonation of Mr. Westhoff illustrating his INTERPRETATION of modern "jazz" MUSIC. He spoke of various members of the music classes who had INTERESTED him during his vigils: GAIL WILES and ELEANOR GAMER who ENLIVENED the class hours by TIMELY giggles; the clock SAID he had a particular FONDNESS for SHORTY DUNHAM who was just "TOO CUTE"; AL HAHN and CHARLES NEWTON were referred to as POTENTIAL symphonic maestros.

The clock in WRIGHTONIAN HALL had DOUBLE duty in serving as reporter of activities in the west END of the third floor of Old Main, for it is the ONLY one in that end. From MRS. HENDERSON'S room it heard CERTAIN reports, however, which were RELAYED on to the other clocks; information as to how the YOUNG teachers should BEHAVE in their first schools—that the principals were SUSCEPTIBLE to a woman's TEARS, so these should be used SPARINGLY; of how PAUL HUDELSON got the type of TEST he wanted to take; of how Bloomington high had AFFECTED DONALD PAUL, EDDIE ZOMBRO, and RICHARD GRIESHEIM; of how GERTRUDE STEWART remembered the connection of Horace Mann to education; of how DOLORES CUNNINGHAM "had the RIGHT idea, but did not quite EXPRESS it clearly," of how WAYNE DEDMAN could not see the VALUE of a student council in which the faculty DICTATED the actions; of how MORRIS CARR and CLAYTON WINTERSTEEN would HANDLE perverse athletes in THEIR schools; and in what manner JAMES HILDEBRAND would treat FRIGHTENED teachers when he became PRINCIPAL.

From the OTHER room the clock could SOMETIMES hear MISS BERNINGER SING a song or see her DEMONSTRATE a dance—such times were ALWAYS interesting; as were also MR. PRINGLE'S comments upon the ADOLESCENT age when he was taking her class.

The PHILADELPHIAN HALL clock reported an interesting study based on the NUMBER of times JANE LARRICK was LATE for her first hour public speaking class. RUTH PEARSON while in class there would OFTEN forget to listen to the instructor, while MUSING about the Phil's VICTORY.

On the floor below, the clock in MISS TEAGER'S room gave a very SCHOLARLY report, and occasionally

LAPSED into Middle English. It confessed a great ATTRACTION for MADELINE KERCHENFAUT'S HAIR—of remarkable tone. It had noted that GERTRUDE COFFLAND and RUSSELL CRUM were extremely LOQUACIOUS—especially BEFORE class started.

In MISS ATKIN'S mathematics classroom, GREAT minds were truly seen at work. LEE ASKINS and EUNICE ROBBINS diligently TALKED to each other while SOMEONE ELSE explained a problem. MISS ATKINS found great SOLACE in FRANCIS BROWN of whom she often asked his OPINION. His comrade, ROBERT ANSPAUGH (maybe I am wrong—"Owl-spout") was another source of COMFORT to the mathematical mind. For BEULAH CLAMON, some classmates suggested she STUDY her lesson (for some reason).

MR. MOORE'S American History class LAUGHED at HIS jokes during the second semester. ALLENE BRIGHT, gracing the STRUGGLING sophomores with her SHINING presence, perhaps laughed LOUDER than was her habit, for she had had MR. MOORE BEFORE. Other social science classes were MADE interesting by various STUDENTS among whom were ROMONA GLAZIER, LAWRENCE NELSON, LOREN KEIM, RICHARD BENJAMIN, and DONALD IMHOFF.

On the first floor, the clock from MR. MILL'S Mathematics room reported that MARCELLA DEWITT just LOVED to "pencil through problems" for the class; and that MARY BRYANT, as a time SAVER, would sometimes "FUDGE on construction."

In MR. HILL'S general methods class, JIMMY HOLLEY OFFERED a daily DISSERTATION upon WHATEVER subject the class was discussing. The instructor received a SHOCK when one member of his classes turned in a semester paper SIX weeks ahead of time—the rest of the class also SUFFERED from surprise and curiosity as MR. HILL forgot to ENLIGHTEN them as to whom this remarkable student was.

In MR. DECKER'S high school PROBLEMS class, the WOULD-BE teachers learned that the RESIDENTS of the communities in which they would teach, did NOT want them to be VULTURES who ROBBED their nests of the YOUTH of the community.

The clocks in the MANUAL ARTS Building told some interesting stories of art, speech, industrial arts, and home economics majors.

In the COMMERCE BUILDING, the clock from MR. ADMIRE'S room had a very business-like manner and WASTED no time in coming to the POINT of his recitation. It SAID that the classes in there were ORGANIZED like regular business offices—PRACTICAL training hurt no one. After a moment, its BRUSKNESS lessened and it CONFIDED that it had learned how to take breathing exercises—MR. ADMIRE was truly a remarkable MAN—he thought so HIMSELF. The classes were unusually LARGE, and frequently when about to move to the NEXT problem, MR. BEERUP would PIPE out with "Well, I don't see WHY you do it THIS way!" So another LECTURE would be summoned. Through it all ALFRED ANDREAE would COMPLACENTLY draw a picture of his OWN work of art, his MUSTACHE.

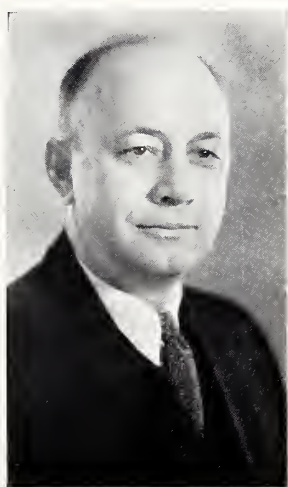

The clock from MR. WILLIAM'S room was full of stories about MR. WILLIAM'S boyhood spent in a SMALL town in Canada. The FURNACE at his house had an obstinate way of needing fixing at the WRONG moment, causing him to be LATE to class.

The clocks in the SCIENCE BUILDING contributed their share although they had been on DUTY a much SHORTER period of time. The clock from MR. LAMKEY'S room told of some interesting EXPERIMENTS made. It seemed very much amused over the ATTEMPTS of KENNETH KNIGHT to make ALCOHOL from rice by using BREAD mold. After two unsuccessful attempts. "OUT-ALL" KNIGHT was still determined to ACHIEVE his goal for if the CHINESE could do it, so could he. ELEANOR MONIGER and VELMA COOPER had an ALARMING way of being OUT of petri dishes and test tubes, and their MATCHES were continually "out" again. This same room was the scene of many ENJOYABLE noons when the scientific SPIRITS drew scholar and teacher together over their LUNCHESES to discuss recent TRENDS and developments in their fields.

The PHYSICS and CHEMISTRY room clocks had many TALES to tell about WOULD-BE experimenters and their attempts. Among these were: ROSE DEAN, JACOB MORGAN, HERBERT BEHRENS, PAUL UNZICKER, DON SNYDER, PAUL HUDELSON, and ELMER FETTERHOFF.

The clocks from the GYM chimed in with stories of physical PROWESS. From the NORTH side, ELEANOR ALLEN, MARJORIE HEDGES, MAXINE GROVES, GLADYS WISEMAN, and GRACE MIKELS received most recognition.

The large GYM clock had much to say in REPORTING the activities of DONALD ADAMS, GLANN JACQUAT, RALPH DEETZ, HORACE HANES, GILBERT VEATCH, MORRIS CARR, BOB HEGE, CURTIS SMITH, DICK WELTY, ROBERT KILE, LEONARD PETERSON, WILBUR EVANS, GENE RODEGHEIRO, BOB KOEHLER, and BILL HERBSTER. It also reported EFFORTS encouraged by EARL REEVES to SELL candy and ice cream to help INCREASE the class TREASURY funds. Several POTENTIAL school teachers were GIVEN training for PEANUT vending.

So RAN the tales of the ticking, TELLING time-pieces.

GITTIN' IT OUT ON MISTER BEYER'S SOUTH 40

So you'd like to know jest WHO those people are out there, Eh, stranger? WAL, jest HIST yerself up onter this here LOG fer a spell and I'll tell ye what I know. Tain't VERY much, but I reckon it'll keep ye QUIET fer a while . . . A good crowd, ye say? Why, I RECKIN' so! Thar's about 1800 people out thar, and 526 of 'em be SOPHOMORES, too! They make up the LARGEST class of SECOND year folks that ever ATTENDED old Normal. Likely lookin' bunch, they be, YESSIR. Ye see them three people a-settin' over there on the front row? Wal, the first one is the President of the class. Name's BERT HERBSTER. BERT'S quite a likely lad, too. GITS out in the SPRING of the year with one of them dern PUTTIN' IRONS and PLAYS a right tol'able game of GOLF . . . I've HEERD about it, but I NEVER got around to tryin' it. Ain't got the TIME, what with the PLOWIN' and all. He's a-workin' on this here INDEX they're putting out at the COLLIGE . . . has something to do with the men's ATHLETICS. Gittin' back to the SUBJECT of our conversation, the second person is the vice-president, ESTHER HARLAN. She's a COMELY lookin' lass, too.

I hear she kin dance PURTY good; I never did take up much with that dern SASSITY stuff. . . . Paw never let me GO OUT much when I was a BOY. That feller that's almost ASLEEP is DICK STIEGLE. . . . Looks SORTA' bad—him sleepin', don't it? Well, sir, he plays a lot of these here ATHLETIC games. Plays football, baseball, and is secretary-treasurer of the class.

Reckin' if ye TURN a little to the LEFT ye ort' be able to see MR. BEYER, their sponsor, explainin' them TWO things (on THREE fingers) about the ECONOMIC siyatshun of the country. Who? Oh, them people LISTENIN' to him? Yep, they're Student Council members. Reckin' they HAFTA set an EXAMPLE by listenin'. They are JOHN HODGE, MARIADA DUESING, and GERALDINE DOOLEY.

Ye know, there's NOTHIN' I like better than to see a bunch of the YOUNG people git up on the STAGE and do some PLAY ACTIN'. We got quite a lot of 'em in this here class, too. There's JEFF ALLEN from Fell Hall—say, THERE'S the place to be. Ever been there? Wal, tell ye; there's about 87 purty lookin'—Eh? Actors? WHY SHORE, I was jest gittin' round to 'em. There's IRENE HAGAN from Lincoln, Ye did? Well, nice TOWN ain't it? There was THREE fellers up here at the Collige that gave a whole bunch of PEACE talks. I heerd they was right SMART, too. Their names are ROBERT TURNER, DONALD HOLLEY, and DALE LONGBONS. SARAH LEE MEYER, RUTH HOFFMAN, DOROTHY ANDERSON and the FIRST two of them fellers I mentioned went CLEAR DOWN to Houston, Texas. Gosh, shore'd like to take a TRIP that fer away from home some day. Maw, she don't like to TRAVEL much, tho. Them three people jest a-comin' in are MARMIE ADMIRE, JOE CITRON, and ANNA FRANCIS DUNCAN. CITRON and MISS DUNCAN kin really CLICK their heels something to make ye SET UP AND TAKE NOTICE. This ADMIRE gal has a job on the RADIO besides all the things she DOES around school. CITRON and MISS DUNCAN have worked in SEVERAL shows together, and that CITRON feller was responsible fer the SWELL numbers in the Blackfriar show. DERNED if I didn't see it! MAW broke down and got a NEW HAT and we come up to the Collige to see it. Like ter DIED A-LAFFIN' at it!

These here fellers what STUDY fer the NEWS-PAPER business are steppin' right out in the SUN, too. Reckin' this KIPPENHAN boy is goern' ter MAKE the GRADE when he gits a-holt of the DERN Index next year. Got a PURTY gal, too! RAY HUNTER is workin' fer the Vidette, THE PAPER, and I hear tell he's IN LINE fer the job as editor in 1938. Course, I ain't sayin' that fer a FACT, but seems purty likely. LIZ NOBLE (used ter have a GIRL by that name—LIZ) and JEAN THOMASSEN are handy at WRITIN' fer the paper, too. We ain't SHORT of newspaper folk, no siree!

Don't think I've been POINTIN' out them PEOPLE good enough fer ye to see, but they're A-MOVIN' around so dern much that I CAN'T SEE 'EM all the time. Guess maybe SOMEBODY'S goin' ter play some MUSICAL numbers. The SOPHOMORE class, here, has got QUITE a lot of MUSICIANS. BY GRANNIES, they're good ones, too. They're all A-SETTIN' next to them NEWSPAPER folks that I was tellin' you about. Cal'-clate PAULINE LEMONS and LOUISE GOBLE are fixin' ter TEAR off a few pieces on the PYANER. The flute and FRENCH HORN will be played by FRANCIS OATES and FLORENCE ANDREWS, respective. Never COULD see why they called the dern FRENCH HORN "French" fer—'cause I seen one over in IOWAY onct! But these MUSIC people are most apt to CALL THINGS by names that us COMMON folk can't HANG ONTA!

ELEANOR COEN done a RIGHT NICE piece of work in her ART CLASS. She went down to that TOWN south of SUGAR CREEK and showed some of them CITY SLICKERS how to paint pictures and draw with BURNT WOOD.

Them fellers over there that LOOK like them ATHLETIC pictures ye see in the MOVIES, see 'em? Well, sir, ye know WHO them are? Why, I'll jest TELL ye. . . . JIM BUSH and BOB SMITH git out on them big COWPATHS (my boy, Ted, he don't like fer me to call 'em COWPATHS, but that's what they LOOK LIKE to me), anyway, them fellers git out and RUN around the dern things, can ye EEMAGINE? I've HEERD of this PLAYIN' TENNIS ON A TABLE, but runnin' around a dern cowpath jest DON'T SEEM RIGHT, that's all. JAMES BARRY is a good golfer, and BILL ODELL plays this LOVIN' GAME, called tennis. ED LESNICK, CHRISTY CHRISTIANSEN and TOM SUTHERLAND play right SMART football; remember the old SUTHERLAND place back of the Bent schoolhouse? Well, sir, this is old Tom's BOY. He's a right strong BOXIN' feller, too. Basketball? Why, I SHORE do. Like it about as good as any of these games. My boy, Ted, he plays a PURTY good game. I never could jest FIGGER out why they let a feller STAND out there in the MIDDLE of the floor and TAKE SHOTS at the dern basket with NOBODY around him. Them EMPIRE men calls it FOWLIN'. I always used to hear my GRANDAD talk about FOWLIN', but he NEVER MENTIONED usin' a ball, er playin' on a floor, er nothin'—he jest had a GUN and some DAWGS. BILL BALDINIG was on the FIRST team, they tell me. BILL ALEX, DALE CLINE, and ED McCAMBRIDGE were the fellers that played baseball. I like the game purty well, but my NEPHEW got hit in the HEAD with a ball once, and he NEVER was JEST RIGHT, after that.

DANCIN', Why shore, them SOPHOMORES dance . . . Reckin' their class THREWED about three of the biggest SHINDIGS this side of PEORIA durin' the year. They had one in December, n' one in Janueery, n' one in May . . . Boy, was them parties HUMDINGERS . . .

I shore hope that I haven't BOTHERED ye TOO DERN much with my TELLIN' about these SOPHOMORES, but they're a LIKELY bunch of young 'uns! Ye ready to GO? Eh?

By GRANNIES! He's ASLEEP!

RAVELINGS FROM AUNT RUTHIE'S APRON

You see before you the HOPE of the future . . . the class of '39 . . . Our shining, UPTURNED faces . . . so TRUSTING . . . we eat our WHEATIES . . . we have that vital SPARK . . . We are the first class to ENTER this institution under the semester plan . . . First in our lives as freshmen was that three-day ORDEAL . . . Freshman Week . . . at that time we PRESENTED ourselves at the opening assembly . . . were HERDED about the campus by CONDESCENDING upper-classmen . . . were SUPPOSEDLY oriented . . . ACCLIMATED, as it were . . . and SATURATED with the "live-and-die-for-Normal" SPIRIT

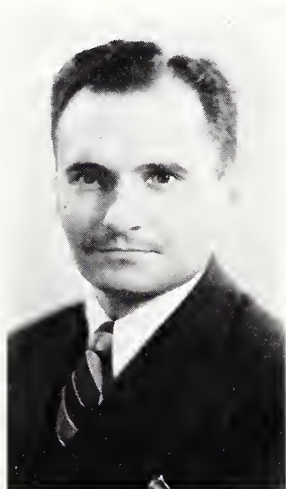

. . . were turned LOOSE in the Gym for registration . . . after hours of STUMBLING around . . . BLINDLY, of course . . . taking Intelligence tests . . . of ALL things . . . wishing that we were "far from the madding crowd" . . . FINALLY realizing that it is the SURVIVAL of the fittest . . . meeting our Profs and Division heads . . . finding that they are really RATHER human, after all . . . still wondering what it is ALL ABOUT . . . we remember the Alamo . . . and incidentally, the Unwritten Law . . . UP the NORTH stairs . . . DOWN the SOUTH stairs . . . conscientious frosh keep their WAISTLINES down to PAR by obeying The Law religiously . . . ESCALATORS would solve the whole problem very nicely, of course . . . Our own Dean . . . executing the NEATEST trick of the week . . . AVOIDS the rush after freshman assembly . . . by clearing the BANNISTER of the west stairway in record-breaking time . . . Professor . . . HOW could you . . . In every PHASE of campus life . . . the freshmen are represented . . . "MIKE" MICHAELS lives up to great expectations . . . RATES a place on basketball team . . . LARRY HAYES . . . our "all-around man" . . . PHILENE CROUCH . . . DEE FILSON . . . "JOE" GRIFFIN . . . BETTYLOU STICKROD . . . have LEADS in Homecoming play . . . "NATE" HAYS wins Mustache DERBY . . . TIDYE ANN PICKETT . . . member of the U. S. TRACK team in 1932 Olympics . . . MARY HELEN GOFF . . . French major . . . active in RADIO work over WJBC . . . FRANK BRIGHT makes good as ONE of the 1935 "beefy fullbacks" . . . F.H.B. is ENCOURAGED by his instructor in Speech class . . . is told that his "speeches" will soon be AS GOOD as his work on the gridiron . . . is this CONSTRUCTIVE criticism? . . . Other freshman sections in FUNDAMENTALS of Speech are TOLD that . . . quote . . . Ideas are born with their skins on . . . unquote . . . HIBLER ASSURES freshman psychology classes that "every college course BEGINS either with the amocba or with Aristotle" . . . Professor denies COMMUNISTIC tendencies to frosh groups in Contemporary CIVILIZATION . . . however the ALLEGED "pink professor" admits that by and large his INVESTMENTS in stocks . . . etc. have made him a "stuck-holder" . . . rather than a stock-holder . . . students get a BIG buzz out of it . . . the idea APPEALS to him . . . he uses it AGAIN . . . and AGAIN . . . 'S Funny Thing . . . but MISS(ed) HENLINE "CURVES HERSELF A CAREER" as mammy for the frosh SONNY-BOYS . . . Another Con Civ prof assures freshmen that they are at LIBERTY to sleep in his classes . . . so long as they do not SNORE . . . as it annoys HIM frightfully . . . especially the 2-A variation of the AH-POOH variety . . . On entering the Alamo . . . "Howdy . . . Crowdy . . . Cloudy." . . . Worldly frosh WONDERS . . . can this be the Hall of Science or Guilty Con-science? . . . We have made ourselves generally OBNOXIOUS to the upperclassmen . . . those LOFTY sophs who have reached the half-way mark . . . deign to GIVE us an ICY stare . . . MISS(ed) HENLINE likes us anyhow . . . We have . . . quote . . . indicated significant SIGNS of maturation . . . in SHORT . . . we are a great gang . . . unquote . . . If we know WHAT she means . . . and WE THINK we do . . . she is all right too . . . But definitely . . . THESE are Normal times . . . and we are Normal now . . . and so . . . We who are about to BECOME sophs . . . (we hope) . . . salute you . . .

HIERONYMUS CLUB

The Hieronymus Club, a collegiate chapter of the American Country Life Association, was organized on the I.S.N.U. campus in 1922. The club which is named in honor of Dr. R. E. Hieronymus, long time State Community Advisor, is an honorary organization of persons interested in rural community life and leadership. Members must have had one semester's work with high scholastic standing and social interests. The club has a membership of 98.

The meetings of the club are planned at the beginning of the year on a yearly basis. The meetings are held every third Monday night and a definite program is arranged for each meeting.

The Hieronymus Club entry in the Hobo parade, "King Potato dethrones King Corn," received recognition from the judges. A Homecoming Breakfast for Alumni and present members was held. Two initiation services have been given during the year. An educational tour of several interesting places in Bloomington served as a regular club meeting. Hieronymus Club recognizes each holiday with a club party.

The club sponsored a stunt in the University Club Stunt Show. Mr. L. W. Hacker, Club sponsor, and the following representatives, Eugene Maguire, Waneeta Conger, Dale Sullivan, Leona Bateman, and Margaret Tjelle attended the National Convention of the American Country Life Association in Columbus, Ohio, last September.

INTERMEDIATE TEACHERS' CLUB

The Intermediate Teachers' Club, which was organized in 1933, is composed of students in the Intermediate Curriculum who are eligible for student teaching, and this year has an enrollment of sixty members. The purpose of the organization is to promote social relationships and encourage professional attitudes on the campus and in the field.

Bi-monthly meetings are held, at which time the necessary business is taken up and very interesting programs are given.

The club has had a number of social functions this year, beginning with the Annual Homecoming Luncheon which was held at the Presbyterian Church in Normal on October 26.

The Club closed its activities for this year with a formal initiation party at Fell Hall.

KINDERGARTEN CLUB

The Kindergarten Club, which was organized in 1917, is composed of students and faculty members of the Kindergarten-Primary department. This year the club has an enrollment of eighty-five girls. The purpose of the organization is to discuss the problems relating to elementary education, and to promote the social relationships of its members.

The club, which meets every third Monday of the month from 7:30 to 9:30, has had a number of social functions this year, beginning with a "Get-Acquainted" party which was held in the Kindergarten room.

For the sixth consecutive year, the Kindergarten club placed in the Hobo Parade, this year winning second with the presentation of "Our Gang." The Homecoming dinner was held in Roland's Neo-Classic room. The program was furnished by three University men.

Informal initiation was held in the Kindergarten room on the nineteenth of November. The following evening a formal initiation was held at Fell Hall. At this time forty-one new members were taken into the club.

The annual Christmas party was held on December 16. Mrs. E. A. Turner read two Christmas stories, "The Gift of the Magi," and "The Lonely Giant." Miss Rosemary Stewart played the piano, and Miss Hortense Stephens danced.

The February meeting was a Pot-Luck supper at which time Helen Jennings, Ruth Sidensticker, and Genevieve Novak sang.

At the March meeting Dr. Marion Taylor talked to the members on a recent trip through Europe.

The high light of the school year was the annual spring dance held April 25 at Fell Hall.

The social calendar closed with a dinner given in honor of the graduating seniors and sophomores.

PRINGLE-HALL CLUB

During the spring of 1934, a group of students in the Upper Grade Curriculum organized the Pringle-Hall Club whose chief purpose is to become better acquainted with other students and teachers on and off the campus who are interested in teaching children of the upper grades. The name, Pringle-Hall, was chosen in recognition of two outstanding writers on the psychology of children of this age—Ralph W. Pringle, of our own faculty, and G. Stanley Hall, a pioneer in the study of adolescence.

The Club took an active part in the 1935 Homecoming celebration, winning first prize in the Hobo Parade with its dragon, Depression, being driven away by Education, and placing sixth in the house decorating contest. The organization also welcomed the visiting alumni at a breakfast at which Mr. Floyd Goodier, a new faculty member, was the guest speaker.

Among the outstanding activities of the year were a party welcoming the freshmen early in the fall, a Christmas party in the Women's Lounge, an initiation party at which new members were taken into the club, an informal meeting at the home of their sponsor, Miss Thelma Force, at which a group letter was written to former members in the field, and a program meeting at which Miss E. M. Burris gave an interesting illustrated talk about English schools.

THE NATURE STUDY CLUB

The Nature Study Club of Illinois State Normal University is an organization for all students who have an interest in wild life and our natural environment. Membership is based solely upon interest, and at present it numbers fifty.

The objectives of this club are to further interest in the preservation and enjoyment of our country-side, to encourage constructive outdoor activity here and elsewhere, and, in doing this, to present varied programs rich in educational value and pleasurable entertainment.

Programs of the year have included an informal get-together in the Student Lounge; an illustrated address by Dr. Lee W. Miller, entitled "Our Common Mushrooms"; a talk by Dr. Nina E. Gray, "Spiders"; a talk by Dr. H. O. Lathrop on "The Mohave Desert;"

and several movie films on topics of interest, presented by Mr. J. E. Fraley, sponsor of the organization.

In the spring, the Nature Study Club always takes a trip to some spot noted for its natural beauty, the cost for club members being merely nominal. In the spring of 1935, the site chosen was Starved Rock National Park. This spring, the trip was made to Turkey Run.

The Nature Study Club Homecoming committee, under the direction of Mr. John Shea, decorated a house and won the fourth prize in the contest.

The Nature Study Club meets regularly, five times per semester, meetings being held the second, seventh, eleventh, fifteenth, and nineteenth Tuesdays.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

All students who have completed one year of college French or its equivalent are eligible to membership of Le Cercle Francais.

This year the conversation at the meetings has been entirely in French for the purpose of perfecting the speaking ability of the members.

The first meeting of the year was held Chez Mme. Ellis. Each member introduced herself, officers were elected, French books and magazines were examined, and French games were played.

At another meeting, Mme. Dorothy Anderson recounted La Histoire de Levlér. Slides of French people and French scenery furnished entertainment for another meeting.

The annual short plays produced by Le Cercle Francais were Une Lettre Chargée and Un Bureau de Telegraphie. The evening these plays were produced the Latin Club was a guest of Le Cercle Francais.

All the meetings have been of a social nature. French songs, French methods of introduction, jokes, and games have all been a part of the social program.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is an organization for all students who are interested in Latin, and in Roman life and customs.

This year the club was favored by having Miss Leah Ridgely, instructor of Latin and history in the Forrest Township High school, speak of her travels in Europe.

At another meeting at the home of the sponsor Miss Carver, Miss Colby, a former Latin teacher at Ann Arbor High school, was an honored guest. Her portrayal of her love and appreciation of Latin was most interesting to everyone.

The joint meeting with the French Club was an additional activity this year. It was decided to have more meetings of this kind.

The programs were furnished at other times by appointed committees of the club. Reports were given on topics such as "Faces in the Roman Crowd," "Little Citizens of Long Ago," and "Monuments and Men of Ancient Rome." At other times Roman card and riddle games were played.

The Neo-classic banquet held in the spring was the outstanding event of the year.

THE SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club of the Illinois State Normal University is an honorary organization for faculty and student members of the several fields of science represented on the campus. Student membership is based on grades and on the vote of the faculty members of the organization, and is limited to forty members.

The purposes of the Science Club are: to cultivate and to foster interest in science among its members, to keep its members informed regarding recent advances in science, and to stimulate its members to pursue intensively some lines of scientific study in advance of the immediate requirements of the classroom.

Programs are planned with these purposes in view and have been largely the work of the student body. During this year, programs have included a lecture by Bradley McNeely, student at I.S.N.U., on certain recent developments in surgery; a talk by Miss Elizabeth Dean of the hygiene department on the Sixty-fourth Annual Meeting of the American Public Health Association; a speech by Kenneth Knight, student, on "Tree Rings," a demonstration in physics by Roger Stauffer and Philip Malmberg of the University High school, and a topic on "Finger Prints," by John Van Huss, student. One of the meetings was taken up with reports by members of the faculty regarding the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science held in St. Louis during the Christmas holidays. At another meeting, Kenneth Knight and Orville Sayers spoke of the Red Bird Geography Tour of 1935, and Dr. Lathrop outlined plans for the tour of 1936. The final meeting of the year is to be a picnic.

The program committee consists of Dr. McAvoy, Dr. Gooding, Miss Alice McGuire, Robert Anspaugh, and Miss Marion Drennan. The club meets regularly on the fourth, eighth, twelfth, and sixteenth Tuesdays of the semester in Room 105 of the David Fellmley Hall of Science.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB

Before this year the Social Science Club had been part of Pi Gamma Mu, National honorary social science society. Membership had been based upon scholarship requirements. This year it was decided to make the club independent of Pi Gamma Mu, since a need was felt for an organization in which membership could be based upon interest in problems of social science.

Debates and panel discussions on the political, social, and economic problems made up the programs. Emphasis was placed on both national and international current affairs.

WOMEN'S DEBATE

Under Miss Ruth Yates, coach of women's debate, forensic women of Illinois State Normal University had a full season this year.

The first decision competition for women was in the Normal Fourth Invitational Debate Tournament, in which three women's teams participated. These teams were composed of Gertrude Stewart and L. Louise Mentzer, Ruth Hoffman, and Mrs. Eisenhower, Virginia Abbott and Sarah Lee Meyer. Miss Abbott and Miss Meyer won six of their seven debates, Miss Hoffman and Mrs. Eisenhower won three of their seven, and Miss Mentzer and Miss Stewart won one debate.

There were some practice debates with neighboring colleges. Then, changing to the Supreme Court question, from that of League Sanctions, a women's team composed of Ruth Hoffman, Virginia Abbott, and Sarah Lee Meyer went to the Franklin College, Indiana Tournament where they tied for first place with Illinois Wesleyan University.

In the Illinois Intercollegiate Debate Tournament, women's teams representing Normal, composed of Dorothy Anderson and Ruth Hoffman, affirmative, and Virginia Abbott and Sarah Lee Meyer, negative, debated the sanctions question, and tied for second place in the tournament. Miss Hoffman and Miss Anderson won three out of four debates, and the same record was made by Miss Abbott and Miss Meyer.

Debating season was climaxed by a trip to Houston, Texas, to the Pi Kappa Delta National Tournament. A women's team composed of Miss Abbott, Miss Hoffman, and Miss Meyer represented Illinois State Normal University there, debating the Supreme Court question. The affirmative team, composed of Miss Hoffman and Miss Meyer won one out of three of their debates. The negative, composed of Miss Abbott and Miss Meyer, won two of their three debates.

As a whole, the women's debate season this year was satisfactory, and those participating in the event derived great benefit from doing so.

SARAH LEE MEYER

MEN'S DEBATE

During the first semester, six students representing Normal, engaged in debates with the University of Illinois, on the high school question—State Medicine. Two practice debates were held with Waynesburg College, Pennsylvania, one of which was on the Oregon Plan. The highlight of debating, as far as college audiences were concerned, was the International Debate with a team representing the University of Oxford. Clifford Scott and George L. Scott representing Normal met Mr. Kay-Shuttleworth and Mr. Greenwood, representing Oxford University on the merits of a written constitution. Just prior to the final examinations, during the first semester, Normal held its Fourth Invitational Debate Tournament, in which sixteen colleges participated. Eighteen affirmative and eighteen negative teams debated the men's question. Normal was represented in this debate by the following teams: Clifford and George L. Scott; Donald Holley and Robert Turner; Herman Graham and Lawrence Nelson; Ellis Blair and Paul Poe; Aretas Dayton and Lee Stabenow; Donald Imhoff and Dwane Kidd; Carl Wilson and Armin Hartman. In the Illinois Intercollegiate tournament, held at Normal, March 13 and 14, Normal won five out of eight debates. Clifford Scott and Donald Holley, upholding the affirmative of the Supreme Court question won half of their debates, and Lawrence Nelson and Robert Turner lost only one of theirs. In the Pi Kappa Delta tournament at Houston, Texas, Normal's men teams again won half of their debates. The teams were composed of the same members that represented Normal in the inter-collegiate debates.

The last debate of the year, Oregon Plan, was held with a team representing the University of Hawaii, composed of Clarence Chang and Robert North. The resolution concerned the granting of statehood to the territory of Hawaii. Normal was represented by Herman Graham and Donald Imhoff.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club is an organization of the Industrial Education Department of Illinois State Normal University. Meetings are held on the first Monday of each month in the Manual Arts Building. Under the able leadership of Dr. R. F. Stombaugh, the club sponsor, and Joe McReynolds, the club president, the club members have enjoyed many interesting and profitable meetings. Dr. Stombaugh acted as the genial host to the club on several occasions at his home.

Homecoming again proved to be an interesting and profitable event for the club for it won second place in the Hobo Parade and tenth place in the house decorations. The programs for the 1935 Homecoming were published and distributed by the members and proved profitable to the organization. The thirty members of the Industrial Arts Club are again looking forward to another profitable and enjoyable year as members of this departmental organization.

COMMERCE CLUB The Commerce Club is one of the largest organizations on the campus. The Club, now twenty-two years old, began with seven members in 1914 under the guidance of Mr. A. R. Williams. It has grown with the Department until the membership now exceeds 150.

Any person enrolled in the commerce curriculum is eligible for membership. The aims of the club are to foster an interest in commercial teacher training, to create interest in the phases of business, and to provide opportunities for wholesome social contacts which lead to better acquaintance among its members.

The first meeting was open to all enrolled in the commerce curriculum in order to acquaint them with the aims of the organization. Approximately eighty students became members at an informal initiation held October 2.

The meetings of the Commerce Club are always well attended because very valuable knowledge is acquired and the programs given have proved to be most interesting. The programs this year have included talks given by Dr. DeYoung, Ruth Glasener, and George White. Programs were also presented by the freshmen, the upperclassmen, and Pi Omega Pi.

The highlights along the line of social events included the Christmas party, a bob-sled party, spring dance, and the annual picnic.

Thanks to the cooperation of the officers, the committees, the members, and our able sponsor, Miss Alta Day, the club has enjoyed a most successful year.

PRESS CLUB Re-organized during the past year to include the scope of both the former newspaper organization and the now-defunct Writers' Forum, the 1935-36 Press Club drew into its membership both journalists and writers with varying literary interests.

President George L. Scott, '36, and Vidette Editor Charles Lane drew up a new constitution which became effective in February. At this time the club's monthly magazine, "The Press" emphasizing freedom of written expression and promotion of discussion made its initial appearance.

Qualifications for membership in Press Club include enrolling in journalism classes, the furnishing of an acceptable amount of copy to the Vidette, or being voted in because of special aptitude for the work of the organization.

MAIZE GRANGE The Maize chapter of the National Grange was organized June 4, 1930, for the purpose of bringing together all students interested in agriculture for greater social and educational advancement.

Membership is 118, an increase of fifty per cent over the year of 1935. Professor C. W. Hudelson is sponsor of the organization.

The organization meets twice a month. Each alternate meeting is given over to some social function. The club has had several prominent speakers, including an English critic for the Russian Moscow newspaper.

This year, the club sponsored the Annual Hobo Parade at Homecoming time.

A delegate was sent from Maize chapter to attend the National Grange convention, held at San Francisco, California, and to the state meeting at Belleville, Illinois.

Neighborliness and cooperation constitute Maize's stock in trade.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is an organization of Home Economics Students for the purpose of promoting interests in that field, developing good leadership and fellowship among its members, and bringing out a closer relationship between the Home Economics Department and other organizations on the campus. Any student enrolled in home economics courses is eligible for membership by paying dues and attending meetings.

The activities of the year began with a party for beginning students held in the Student Lounge. The annual Homecoming Banquet with Miss Hess, State Supervisor of Home Economics Education, as guest of honor, was one of the high lights of the year. The club will again promote this year the Second High School Home Economics Day when it will have as its guests on the campus, high school home economics students from Central Illinois.

Some of the interesting club programs of the year have included a talk, "Music in the Home" by Miss Knudson of the Music Department, a talk, "Edible Mushrooms" by Dr. Miller of the Science Department, and parties and programs put on by the club members. The club is sponsoring also the Friday afternoon programs from WJBC at 5:00 P.M. as their newest and perhaps most varied activity. Much of the success of the club is due to Miss Rambo, the sponsor, and Adeline Dirks, president.

LOWELL MASON CLUB

The Lowell Mason Club is one of the many musical organizations on the campus of I.S.N.U. which is open to music majors and minors. However, this organization is open to them only.

This year the club has increased its membership to practically double its membership of last year owing to the fact that the music department has grown very rapidly in the last two years. At an informal initiation in December, fourteen new members proved their worth to this organization by displaying their skill in various ways.

During the year the club has given a fifteen-minute program over station WJBC every Friday afternoon under the direction of C. W. Webb. This program has been called the "Music Masters' Series," and contained a thumb-nail sketch of famous composers and their works.

At Homecoming time in October, the club presented a German band in the Hobo Parade, winning eighth prize. At this time a luncheon was given at the Christian Church.

Lowell Mason Club is looking forward to next year, profiting by this year's mistakes, yet feeling that it has had a year worth remembering under its president, Alvin Hahn.

MARCHING BAND The marching band of fifty men, decked in red and blue uniforms, thrilled every spectator at the football games with its unique formations. The music of the group did much to add pep to the games. The organization accompanied the football team on its southern trip to McKendree, also stopping off at Staunton to play for the gridiron contest between Staunton and Gillespie High Schools.

Later in the fall twenty-four men were selected from the marching band to make up a "pep band" to play at the basketball games. The spirited marches and novelty numbers helped kindle the fighting spirit the team needed for a successful season.

CONCERT BAND This marks one of the most successful years that the band of I.S.N.U. has enjoyed. It is the first time that the concert band has had a complete instrumentation, but only through the constant efforts of Mr. Kenyon S. Fletcher, the director, has it been possible for them to have some of the instruments not commonly found in the average band. The concert band provided music for many occasions, such as general assemblies and the dedication of the new Pantagraph Building. It broadcasts a program every two weeks over radio station WJBC.

On April 22, the concert band climaxed its year's work by presenting the annual spring concert. The following program was presented:

Governor's March . . . . . Colonel Hand
The Bride of Kashmir . . . . . Rubenstein
Moonlight Sonata (first movement) . . . . . Beethoven

Finale from the Fourth Symphony . . . . . Tschaikowsky

Prelude . . . . . Bnsch
The Girl with the Flaxen Hair . . . . . Debussy
Troika en Traineaux (The Sleigh Ride) . Tschaikowsky
Rienze (Overture) . . . . . Wagner

Mr. Fletcher also organized a second band, designed for those who wished to learn on any instrument and as a laboratory for the regular instrumental classes.

At the close of the year the activities of the bands were closed with a picnic for all those participating.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CHORUS

The sixty vested members of the University Women's Chorus have blended their voices in song for the last time this season. Though the notes have vanished into the atmosphere, there will remain within these young women, feelings of deep satisfaction that some have climbed another step up the ladder of musical attainment.

This organization, which came into being about thirty-five years ago, maintains its reputation as a singing group of merit firmly established in the annals of I.S.N.U. history.

Under the skillful direction of F. W. Westhoff, Professor Emeritus of Music, the University Women's Chorus has made many successful appearances at the various churches and local organizations in Bloomington and Normal.

VARSITY WOMEN'S CHORUS

Do you know how to sing? Did you know you could learn? Just take a few minutes off and read about the "singing girls" on the campus of I.S.N.U.

The Varsity Women's Chorus offers the women of the university an opportunity to participate in such an organization for their benefit and enjoyment. The glee club is open to all women of the university, but membership is determined by try-outs held at the beginning of each semester under the direction of Professor Westhoff. Practices are held every Monday and Wednesday evening, and at the present time there is a membership of 65. This glee club acts as a feeder for the University Women's Chorus, but it is an honor to be a member of either one.

The organization, under the direction of Miss Emma R. Knudson, is active not only on the campus, but it also has been heard several times over WJBC on the Normal hour.

The glee club sang the following selections for the spring musical festival which was held in May: Let All My Life Be Music by Charles G. Spross; A Day at the Fair, an old English tune; and Golden Slumbers Kiss Your Eyes, an old English folk song.

Miss Knudson was assisted at the piano the first of the year by Miss Virginia Steiner and Mrs. Helen Ayres. Her accompanist the second semester has been Miss Janet McKean.

Not only does the chorus sing as a group, but it has featured vocal solos by Miss Marian Ballinger; piano solos by Miss McKean, and talks on the lives of composers by Miss Mildred Schulze, Miss Marjorie Talbot, and Miss Hazel Morris.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

When the Indexes were making the rounds last year for autographs, every member of the Men's Glee Club always included in his autograph something like this: "Don't forget the good times we had in glee club and I hope to see you back next fall." And when fall came, the old gang was back again with the same spirit and enthusiasm.

The Glee Club had quite an active year, being presented at various programs in many central Illinois towns.

The Glee Club again made a four-day tour during the Easter vacation. They gave a program during the day at the high schools of the following Illinois towns: Delavan, Greenview, Ashland, Virginia, Scottville, Wood River, Collinsville, Mt. Olive, Staunton, and Witt. Night concerts were given at Petersburg, Winchester, Staunton, and Weldon. The concert at McMurray College at Jacksonville should certainly not be forgotten.

The Glee Club owes its success to the director, Miss Blaine Boicourt. Miss Boicourt has been active in musical circles throughout the state as well as on the campus.

After the tour the glee club participated in the spring music festival on the campus and gave several other programs. The final important affair of the club was the annual spring banquet. It was on this occasion that the key medals were awarded the worthy members.

VARSITY MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Varsity glee club was organized by Miss Blaine Boicourt in the fall to accommodate the men who wished to join a choral group but had had no previous experience. The club is composed of twenty men, particularly from the Freshmen and Sophomore classes.

The club has made a number of appearances during the year. During the second semester frequent joint meetings with the First club established a feeling of fellowship between the two groups and was the means of preparing members of the less experienced club to fill vacancies that had arisen in the First club.

The annual tour of the First club requires a full roster and a few of the Varsity members were eligible to join the group.

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

The University Orchestra is open to people in all curricula who can pass a proficiency test. This year it has grown considerably in instrumentation and playing ability, thanks to the efforts of its conductor, Miss Emma R. Knudson.

Among its activities are: furnishing music for the Homecoming play, playing radio concerts over WJBC on the Normal Hour, furnishing ensembles for various community and school programs, playing a concert for the Central Division of the Illinois State Teachers' Conference, and its annual spring concerts.

The outstanding performance this year was its part in the State Orchestra Clinic which was held on the campus on October 18 and 19. The orchestra was augmented by a few players from Illinois Wesleyan and some high school players from Normal Community High School and other high schools in the state. The resulting group was used as a demonstration orchestra by Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, President of the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, and by Mr. George Dasch, of Chicago, in the clinic.

Members of the orchestra are looking forward to helping put I.S.N.U. "on the map" as much as possible in instrumental music next year. While we feel somewhat gratified with this year's results, we are expecting to do even better things next year under so able a leader as Miss Knudson.

THE ART CLUB The Art Club was organized years ago and has functioned continuously ever since. It has as its primary purpose the furthering of higher ideals in art and its appreciation. The club believes that in order to accomplish its purpose it is necessary to stimulate interest in art in the student body as a whole. This was its chief aim this year.

The Art Club is open for membership to all those students who manifest an interest in art. There are no requirements set up as to a certain number of art courses or semester hours in art work. Meetings are held twice a month.

At the beginning of school, the club held its informal initiation at Forest Park. This was a wiener roast and served as a "get-acquainted" party which was followed by a formal initiation held in the Student Lounge. Miss Allen, the sponsor, gave a Christmas party for the club just before vacation.

At the beginning of the second semester the club decided to carry out its program for stimulating interest in art among the student body by having a series of exhibits in the Student Lounge. This is the first year the club has attempted to handle traveling exhibits. It is hoped that it may become a permanent function of the club in the future.

"N" CLUB The "N" Club is an organization composed of all the lettermen of the University.

The purpose of the club is to further the spirit of fellowship and goodwill among the men of the campus and of the other schools with which it comes in contact.

The outstanding events of the year, sponsored by the "N" Club, were the "N" Club banquet, which was held at the YWCA during the Homecoming; the Normal-Wesleyan Goodwill dance, featuring Charlie Agnew and his orchestra, which was one of the outstanding dances of the year; and the assembly programs. The final social event of the year was a dinner dance featuring Lang Thompson and his archestra, which was held at the Maplewood Country Club.

Much credit is due to Mr. Fogler (honorary member) for his work in promoting the activities of the club.

ORCHESIS Orchesis, national honorary dancing organization, completes its ninth year on the Illinois State Normal University campus this spring.

Every Wednesday night throughout the year, junior and senior Orchesis have met in the women's gymnasium. Meetings have been spent in working out different approaches to dance composition, such as music, idea, rhythm, foot pattern, or floor pattern, and in practicing dance fundamentals.

An informal program or party has been planned for late spring. Ruth Farnham is president, and Alice Blum is treasurer. Miss Katherine Thielen has been sponsor of Orchesis. Miss Alta Parsons is Orchesis accompanist.

W.A.A. The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to assist the Department of Physical Education for Women in planning and conducting an Intramural program and to sponsor various social affairs which contribute to the recreational and social life of I.S.N.U.

Membership is open to every woman in school. Active members are those who attend meetings regularly, contribute dues to the financial upkeep of the organization and actually plan the recreational and social programs offered to all women in school.

The executive board is composed of thirty members rather than the few traditional officers—president, secretary, and treasurer. There are twenty-three sport heads who are responsible chiefly for the various recreational and social programs which constitute the purpose of W.A.A.

W.A.A. offers an extensive program of fifteen major activities, team and individual, besides various recreational games—ping pong, badminton, and the like, many different types of outings—such as roller skating, hikes, and camping trips.

Throughout the year, W.A.A. sponsors various social functions for all women in school, giving them an opportunity to participate in social as well as recreational activities.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Sixty-four years ago the first student Young Women's Christian Association of the world was organized at Illinois State Normal University. From 1872 to the present this organization has been one of the most significant for the women of the campus. All girls in school are eligible for membership in the Young Women's Christian Association, whose purpose is to help young women adjust themselves mentally, spiritually, and socially to contemporary and future problems, and thus achieve more complete and more creative living.

In addition to the officers, the work of the association is aided by an advisory board including faculty members and other women interested in the welfare of the association.

Meetings are held every Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in Wrightonian Hall. We are hoping, however, that some day it may be possible to restore and to refurnish the "White Room" so that our meetings may be held there, for the "White Room," on the ground floor of Old Main, was once the regular meeting place of the Young Women's Christian Association of Illinois State Normal University.

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

The Women's Physical Education Club is composed of all the women in the University who are majoring or minoring in health and physical education. The chief purpose of the club is to give the members the professional attitudes and views in this field. The program for this year has been varied and interesting. The first meeting of the year was a social one to get acquainted with the new members. The regular Christmas party was held with the Men's Physical Education Club, a plan which proved to be very successful. A business meeting was held each month at which one class secured a speaker for the evening and another class entertained the club with a stunt. The annual Homecoming breakfast was held for the alumnae in the W.A.A. room. The activities of the year were closed by the annual potluck supper in June as a farewell to the seniors.

PHILADELPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Philadelphia Literary Society is the oldest and one of the most honored organizations on the campus. The society aims to develop its members socially, intellectually and spiritually; and to give them opportunity for self-expression in various phases of speech and in music.

Early in the fall semester an open meeting was held for all Phils—both nominal and active. A program was given by the active members after which games and refreshments were enjoyed in the Student Lounge. When tryouts were held during the semester, many new members were added, making the membership of the society total forty-five.

December 16, Philadelphia sponsored a Christmas party to which the members of Wrightonia were invited. A program, given by members of both societies, games and refreshments made up the evening's entertainment.

The next time the two societies met it was not on such a sociable occasion. January 17, the rivalry between them was revived for the seventy-fifth annual contest.

Philadelphia lived up to its motto—"Going On"—by winning the contest by a 4-3 score. The following people capably represented Philadelphia in this year's battle: Wilson Wierman and Clair Stine, debate; Robert King, oration; Sarah Lee Meyer, extemporaneous speech; Mary Helen Goff, reading; Janet McKean, piano; and Adah Poincel, voice. It was a very close and interesting contest.

A victory banquet and a picnic were the high lights of the spring semester's activities.

Although Philadelphia is a literary society, its members are prominent in other types of activities on the campus.

The suggestions and help from Mr. Lancaster, the sponsor of the society, plus the cooperation, good spirit and hard work of the members have made a very successful year for Philadelphia.

WRIGHTONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The aims and activities of Wrightonian Literary Society are directed toward a better appreciation of musical and literary culture. The society was limited originally to debating, but during the course of its development in the last half century dramatic reading, oratory, extempore speaking, and instrumental and vocal music have been added.

The historic Monday evening meetings serve a twofold purpose: to present programs of literary value; and to develop the talents of Wrightonian members. This opportunity to enjoy the finer arts is greatly appreciated by those whose interests lie in that direction.

The climax of the group activities each year is reached in the Philadelphia-Wrightonian Literary Contest. Victory in this traditional engagement is greatly coveted and stimulates the societies, urging them ever onward.

The highlight of the social activities of the society was the banquet which was held in Roland's Neo-Classic Room.

The society appreciates the work of its sponsor, Professor C. A. Harper.

THE COLLEGE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The College League of Women Voters was organized on this campus as the Citizenship Committee of the Executive Board of Women's League. It is also affiliated with the State and National League of Women Voters. The League is a non-partisan organization which aims to promote the responsible participation of women in local, national, and international affairs of the day. This citizenship organization of the Women's League is evidence that the women of I.S.N.U. are thinking, interested citizens. Every woman in school interested in citizenship, regardless of whether she be of voting age, is eligible for membership.

Some meetings of interest have been those based on the following topics: women's importance in the political field, state institutions, local and state government.

Social meetings of interest have been a chilli supper in the Women's Lounge and a St. Patrick's day party at the home of the sponsor, Miss Waldron.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The membership of Women's League consists of all women students of the University. Its major purposes are: aiding new women students to become acquainted, sponsoring social activities, and conducting the College League of Women Voters.

Women's League was organized at Illinois State Normal University in 1925. This year its tenth anniversary was celebrated at Homecoming with a breakfast to which past and present presidents, members of executive and central boards, and honor councils were invited.

The organization is composed of the activities of three groups: the executive bodies, which are the Executive and the Central Boards; the Honor Council; and the League of Women Voters.

This year the League re-finished and re-covered the chairs of the Women's Lounge and added to the comfort and the beauty of the room. At Christmas time all women students were invited to bring gifts which were distributed to needy families of the Normal community.

For the first time the Women's League instituted a Women's Day this year, which was held during the latter part of March. The League sponsored an assembly program consisting of contributions made by various women's organizations of the campus; a section of the Vidette was devoted to women's activities in the University; during Women's Day, the Women's League election of officers for the next year was held.

A freshman handbook was compiled and published by Women's League and the University Club at the beginning of the year. The handbook contained all the facts that a freshman would need to know about the campus and the activities of his college.

In the spring of the year Women's League was represented at the convention of the National Inter-collegiate Association of Women Students at Granville, Ohio.

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Executive Board of Women's League consists of the officers who are elected at the student election each spring, the chairmen of committees, the president of Fell Hall, and the Dean of Women.

The Forum Committee contributed talks by Mrs. Margaret Wells Wood and Mrs. A. R. Williams to the activities of Women's League for the year. It sponsored Christmas programs during the noon hours of the week preceding Christmas vacation, and arranged the program for Women's Day. The social activities of the year included a tea given in honor of the freshmen and new women students, and several invitational and all-school dances.

CENTRAL BOARD OF WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The members of the Central Board consist of those of the Executive Board and the presidents and secretaries of districts, who are elected at a mass meeting in the fall.

The district presidents were: Myrna Askew, Hildgard Walty, Agnes Malkus, Grace Karl, Gwendolyn Taylor, Eleanor Wolff, Ada Teadori, Lucy Lynn Smith, Mildred Fee, Frances Bright, Dagmar Swanson, Carolyn Heinemann, Marian Drennan, Euola Sanderson, Lola Husinga, Wilma Doran, Eleanor Gented, Helen Fairweather, Cellerstine Watkins, Roberta Holmes, Irene Springer.

The district secretaries were: Esther Fey, Evadine Hoyman, Viola Schneider, Elsie Lux, Lucille Tomason, Lucille Brice, Doris Etherton, Nellie Baird, Lucille Bohrer, Esther Harlan, Cecil Bergan, Eliza Wright, Vernal Bair, Dorothy Stalter, Nona Meadows, Mary Jackson, Frances Ebner, Jane Larrick, Arria Jean Pinson, Catherine Wall.

HONOR COUNCIL Honor Council consists of ten junior or senior girls who are chosen for their scholarship, leadership, and personality. The Fellowship Chairman, Miriam Brown, and President of Women's League, Pauline Smith, are honorary members. Each member acts as advisor to ten Campus Sisters who in turn have several freshman sisters to assist in orienting and adjusting to campus life. Honor Council was organized in 1933 and was an outgrowth of the Big and Little Sister Movement which was started in 1927. The members of Honor Council were: Miriam Brown, Mary Louise Barger, Helen Satterwhite, Beatrice Fisher, Olive Fite, Nancy Raisbeck, Dorothy Crout, Elizabeth Blair, Gail Wiles, Mary Huxtable, Pauline Smith, and Bernice Ramsey.

UNIVERSITY CLUB The University Club has passed through another successful year of club activities under the leadership of its sponsor, Mr. R. H. Linkins. The club began the school year with the annual Stag Party, with informal talks being given by President Bunn, of the club, President Fairchild, Dean Schroeder, Dean Linkins, Mr. Horton, Coaches Hancock and Cogdal.

The all-school Christmas Service held Sunday afternoon, December 20, in the Capen Auditorium was one of the best ever held on our campus. The University Men's and Women's Glee Clubs furnished the music for the service. Rev. Ralph G. Carson of Bloomington gave the sermon.

The University Club again sponsored the Stunt Show which was given on Friday, May 8, and on the following Sunday, the Annual Mother's Day Program in Capen Auditorium which was followed by a reception held at Smith Hall.

Among the activities sponsored by the club, are some of the best dances held on the campus, including the annual Spring Formal held each year at Maplewood Country Club, and the pledge dances held in Fell Hall.

FELL HALL Fell Hall, the only dormitory for women on the campus, accommodates ninety girls, twenty-one of whom are honor residents chosen for scholarship, high personal ideals, and leadership. This year the Hall has been the scene of many of the most important social functions of the University, including the faculty reception for upperclassmen, the reception for Frances Perkins, and the Student Council and Women's League Formals.

Dr. Laila Skinner of the psychology department is the new director of Fell Hall.

Miss Dorothy Deitz, Social chairman, assisted by the Misses Mary Huxtable, Margaret Full, Dorothy

Cox, Nina Erickson, and Pauline Lemons planned the social program for the year. It included two informal dances and one formal. The girls of Fell Hall also gave a party for girls living off the campus.

The honor residents for 1935-'36 were the Misses Allen, Anderson, Brown, Bryant, Cahill, Corzine, Cox, Dean, Deitz, Erickson, Feulner, Full, Goble, Hatteberg, Holmes, Hostettler, Hughes, Huneke, Huxtable, Lemons, and Seidel.

SMITH HALL Operating for the second year, Smith Hall, a University Club project, emphasized greatly both the feasibility and desirability of a men's dormitory on the campus. The personal interest of both President Fairchild and Dean Linkins acted as a great stimulus for the success of the undertaking.

At the first house meeting of the school year John R. Higgins was elected president; Bert Herbster was chosen secretary; and Rolla Ingham was voted in as treasurer. Three freshmen, George Davidson, Ross Fairchild and William Small, were selected to serve on the house committee with Robert Cox and Robert Fairchild, upperclassmen.

First prize in house decorations on Homecoming was won by Smith Hall for the second consecutive year. Bob Hooton's art work plus the manual labor of Smith Hall residents and University Club members won top ranking with "Another Scalp for Chief I.S.N.U." creation.

On November 9, Mrs. Grace Griswold, who served as housemother since the Hall opened in 1934, was married to Mr. Frederick James. Her place was taken by Mrs. George Y. Ream, who immediately became a favorite with the men of the Hall.

Many informal Sunday evening gatherings were planned by Mrs. Ream and "Doc" Linkins throughout the year. Oyster stews, waffle suppers, and steak fries were a few of the events staged for the benefit of the residents. That meals may be served at the Hall next school year is a strong possibility as evidenced by the enthusiasm which attended these gatherings.

An extensive social program was promoted by chairman Robert Fairchild, assisted by the house committee members. Two closed dances, flanked by numerous radio parties, plus several receptions, made up a well-rounded entertainment program.

Intramural athletic teams managed by Wallace McIntyre and Robert Whitney, showed well in basketball and volleyball. Individual sports attracted participants in badminton, handball, checkers, free throwing, golf, tennis, bridge, and pinochle.

Throughout the year new furniture was continually added to the first floor rooms. Chief among the donors was the University Club, which sponsored the dormitory idea.

The Hall is open to all University Club members for recreational and lounging purposes, and club meetings are held there once a month.

JESTERS

Jesters, the honorary dramatic society of Illinois State Normal University, was organized in 1933 by Miss Mildred Felmley for the purpose of encouraging drama and amateur acting.

Eligibility to membership in this organization is not limited to students of the Dramatics Department. Membership is made up of students from any department who are actively interested in dramatics and in participating in acting or play production on the campus.

The first initiation of the year was held November 17, 1935, to initiate those people who became eligible through their work on the Homecoming play, "The Milky Way."

The Jester nativity play under the direction of Miss Mabel Clare Allen, assisted by Miss Florine Feulner, included scenes from the ancient York Cycle of mystery plays as arranged by John Baird. It has become the custom for the Jesters assisted by the Department of Music to present each year a Nativity play to familiarize the student body with the various types of such plays and their lighting, costuming, and design of action and groupings.

This year the Jesters presented for assembly the one-act play, "Pierre Patelin," which was cast, staged, and directed by members of the society.

The full-length production of the Jester society was George M. Cohan's satirical mystery-drama, "The Tavern," presented March 24 and 25 under the direction of Miss Mabel Clare Allen, assisted by Miss Gertrude Stewart.

In addition to their active participation in drama and their various social meetings the Jesters hold each year a closed costume party which is based upon the theme of a production or productions of the University Theater.

BLACKFRIARS

The Blackfriars at their first fall meeting prepared for an extensive piece of work in the field of musical dramatics. With this in mind, all the activities of the year were directed toward this goal.

The group of old members swelled the ranks of the regulars several times during the fall when new members were admitted in the particular fields of activity where they were needed. These members, after their proper initiation, aided in developing a more coordinated spirit in the organization.

Blackfriars, as usual, participated in the Homecoming activities by decorating a house. They cooperated in making the year's celebration a bigger and better one.

The big activity of the year was the dramatic production presented on February 16. The script, entitled "'S Funny Thing," was written by Dick Noble and directed by Dick and the production director, Vernon Faut. Members of the cast were: Joe Citron, Paul Connole, Dick Noble, and Larry Hayes, as the main dancing chorus; Don Imhoff as the hero; Ned Parret in the role of the tender heroine; and Al Hieronymus, Jerry Baker, Bob Turner, Harry Dunham, Clifford Scott, Horace Haines, Tom Benten, Charles Davis, Vernon Heins, Ray Newston, Dick Griesheim, Paul Hudelson, and John Weldon in assisting roles. The music was written by Dick Noble, Don Imhoff, Joe Citron, and Dale Miller and was played by the Blackfriar band under Dale's direction.

The show proved to be a great success, with such numbers as the Benten-Dunham act permanently engraving themselves on the minds of the audience. It was a production that alone justified the presence of the organization on the campus.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club, an organization of the Catholic men and women on the campus, was organized in 1924 for the purpose of promoting the religious and social life of the Catholic students. At the opening of school, letters are sent to the Catholics on our campus to acquaint them with the nature and purpose of the club. Soon after school opens a reception is held in the student lounge to which all Catholics are invited.

In September of the past year John Weldon, president of the club, invited the club to a wiener roast at his home in the country. Nearly two hundred students enjoyed the hospitality of the Weldons. The next big social event was the Homecoming Breakfast at the Rogers Hotel. At Christmas time the club enjoyed a party on the campus and exchanged gifts. Before Lent another party was held. In March the regular monthly meeting was in the form of a supper meeting at Gretchen's Kitchen. At this meeting Dr. Hibler was the guest speaker. He gave an excellent talk on "Problems in Self-Adjustment." The final social event of the year is the annual May banquet which is now being planned.

In addition to the social events of the year, various programs have been given at the regular monthly meetings. These have consisted of short plays, music, readings, current events, and panel discussions on topics of interest and value to college students.

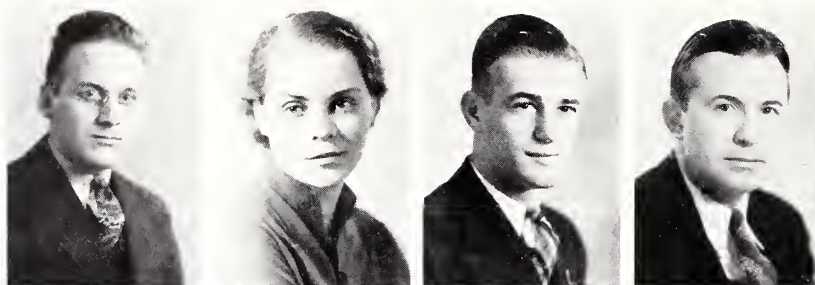

This year the club has had on its roll more students than ever before. Miss Regina Connell of the Latin department is completing her seventh year as sponsor of the club, and much of the success of the Newman Club is due to her interest and help.

THE VIDETTE

Charles C. Lane, Editor-in-Chief; Dorothy Henneke, Associate Editor; Glenn Jacquat, Business Manager; Dr. Paul Royalty, Adviser.

During the school year 1935-36, The Vidette, Normal's semi-weekly student publication, emerged as a new sheet, left off its cumbersome "swaddling-clothes" length it had worn for a decade or more, and came out resplendent in modern Bodoni headline attire and "the latest" in newspaper make-up.

Increased appropriations, a larger working force, and the sponsorship of Dr. Paul Royalty aided Editor Charles C. Lane and his staff in making the somewhat revolutionary changes.

News for The Vidette is supplied by the beginning journalists for the most part; assistance in editorial and feature writing is given by the advanced editing group.

On the editing staff are Dorrit Keirn, '36, desk editor, Dorothy Henneke, '36, make-up editor; Ray Hunter, '37, and Elizabeth Noble, '38, desk assistants.

Sports writing and sports make-up are handled by Joe Alfeld, '36, John Dohm, '37, (second semester), and Bert Herbster, '38. Feature writers and columnists are Maurine Blum, '36, Lee Poklaske, '38, Don Imhoff, '37, Hazelle Berkness, '36, and Milton Pentecost, '37.

Glenn Jacquat, '37, is business manager.

ALPHA TAU ALPHA

Alpha Tau Alpha is a National Professional Agricultural Educational Fraternity. It was founded for the purpose of encouraging high standards in agricultural education, promoting campus activities, developing good leadership and fellowship among its members.

This national organization has established chapters in fourteen outstanding colleges of agriculture in the United States. The Xi Chapter at I.S.N.U. was established during the spring term of 1935.

The activities that were sponsored by Alpha Tau Alpha include: an all-school dance in the fall, the Smith-Hughes High School Vocational Judging Contests, the annual barn dance, the annual I.S.N.U. corn show, the senior agriculture banquet, and the annual community farmers' night.

The Fraternity limits its membership to juniors and seniors who have an average of 82 or above in their academic work.

Much of the success of the Fraternity is attributed to Prof. C. W. Hudelson and its sponsor, Prof. T. J. Douglass.

GAMMA DELTA

Gamma Delta is I.S.N.U.'s newest organization. It came into existence the evening of February 27, 1936, for the purpose of uniting all the Lutheran students on the campus in one body. Even as a national fraternity, Gamma Delta is a new thing, having come into being only within the last few years.

Lutheran students in various colleges over the United States felt a need for getting into contact with each other and sharing views and opinions held by their respective schools. The answer to this need was Gamma Delta, and the organ used for sharing news and ideas is the "Spectator," a paper issued monthly by the University of Minnesota.

On the night of February 13, while the snow was still so deep that it was being measured by the yard stick and people with teeth chattering and ears hidden beneath the resurrected ear-muff dashed from one place of refuge to another, a large number of Bloomington Walther League members from Trinity Church came out to Normal and helped the Lutheran students put their plan for forming a local chapter of Gamma Delta into operation.

Mildred Schulze was elected temporary chairman, Alvin Hahn temporary secretary, and a constitutional committee was appointed.

At the first regular meeting, February 27, the constitution and by-laws were adopted, officers were elected, and Mrs. Rose Buehler selected as faculty sponsor.

The following standing committee chairmen were appointed by the executive board: Peggy Hartman, membership; Lowell Johnson, program; Mabel Krusa, refreshment.

A party given by the Walther League for Gamma Delta members, a roller-skating party, a lecture by Prof. G. M. Palmer, and a picnic were among the activities of the year, necessarily limited because of the fact that Gamma Delta has been in existence only four months.

GAMMA PHI

The Illinois Alpha Chapter of Gamma Phi at the completion of the sixth year of its existence has continued to become more active and more successful than ever. Since it is an honorary education fraternity, its purposes are to promote an interest in physical education among the students and to honor gymnastic achievement of men among the student body and the faculty.

Success in this year's activities can be correlated with a steady development that has taken place in the chapter's six years of existence. Mr. Horton's most capable leadership has been largely responsible for the fact that Gamma Phi has become one of the most active fraternal groups on the campus. Gamma Phi's program has included Monday night meetings at the gymnasium and a dinner once a month at the Campus Inn. Gamma Phi has secured a commodious club room which with its comfortable lounge and radio has equalled gymnastic participation in unifying the purposes of the group and welding all together in the spirit of sincere good-fellowship.

The pinnacles of this year's achievements was the first annual Gamma Phi dance and the fifth annual Gamma Phi Circus, which were interesting and entertaining affairs, produced largely by the efforts of all Gamma Phi under the capable direction of Mr. C. E. Horton. It is no idle boast that this circus was the best of its kind ever produced by a school of this size. Miss Grace Mikel was elected queen of this year's circus by a very close margin. Plans for an even more worthy production for next year are already under way.

The Gamma Phi Service Pin, an award made to seniors who have been outstanding in their services to the fraternity, was given at the May meeting. Kenneth Martin won this award in 1935. At this time, Miss Margaret Naffziger, fourth queen of the circus, was elected to honorary membership. Miss Naffziger was presented with a Gamma Phi Sister Pin by the local chapter.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

Alpha Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon was founded at Illinois State Normal University May 15, 1928, to function as a professional fraternity in geography. It expanded to national scope in 1931 and at this time twelve other chapters have been established at various colleges in the United States.

Chapter meetings are held on the third, seventh, eleventh, and fifteenth Mondays of each semester. The programs were varied and interesting, consisting of talks given on points of travel, and reports of geographical magazine material. Miss Mabel Crompton, of the geography department, spoke about her trip to the Adirondacks. Miss Edna Gueffroy, a member of the geography department, talked on her trip to the Southern States. Dr. Lathrop, our sponsor, told about French-Canada, and illustrated his talk with slides. Dr. Watson Gailey of Bloomington, Illinois, presented an illustrated talk on India. The annual steak fry, which is the last number on the year's program, was held in May at Lake Bloomington.

The outstanding event of the year was the Homecoming banquet, held at the First Presbyterian Church in Normal, where old acquaintances were renewed and new ones made.

KAPPA DELTA EPSILON

Kappa Delta Epsilon is a national professional education sorority for junior and senior girls. Fourteen girls were formally initiated into the sorority in Fell Hall on January 22, 1936.

The meetings of the year have been of both social and professional value. Many interesting and enlightening programs have been presented during the year. Miss Webb gave an account of her summer vacation; Dr. S. R. Hamrin talked to the group about educational trends in Europe and America; a student program, planned by Dorene Murphy and Wilmoth Satterlee, was carried out; Mrs. Taylor gave a talk on the life and thoughts of John Milton; and Mr. Kinneman gave a lecture in the field of the social sciences.

The outstanding social events of the year were the Homecoming luncheon, which was held at Rogers Hotel in collaboration with Kappa Phi Kappa, and the Founder's Day Banquet, which was held April 25.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, a National Honor Society in Education, was established at the University of Illinois in 1911. There are now 103 chapters in the United States. Dr. W. C. Bagley of Columbia University is the founder.

Mu chapter was installed at Illinois State Normal University in 1922, with some of our present instructors as chapter members. Members are chosen for high general scholarship and pleasing personal qualities.

At the Homecoming banquet Mr. Lester Grimm, Research Director of the Illinois State Teachers Association, a former active member of Mu chapter, spoke, and President R. W. Fairchild acted as toastmaster.

On January 13, 1936, the following people were initiated: Floyd Bates, Elizabeth Blair, Francis Brown, Mary Bryant, Mary Huxtable, Pauline Smith, and George White.

At one of our meetings, Dr. Julius Miller, head of the art department spoke on "The Life of a European Student."

The president, Mr. Harry McClintock, was the delegate to the Eleventh Biennial Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi, held in St. Louis, Mo., February 24, 25, and 26.

The last event of the year is the annual spring banquet at which all the initiates of the year are guests.

KAPPA MU EPSILON

Euclidean Circle, largely through the efforts of Professor C. N. Mills, was installed as the Illinois Alpha Chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon on January 26, 1933.

Meetings this year have been varied in nature—business, social, and program meetings. At one of the program meetings, Miss Atkin, Mr. Mills, and Mr. John Ayres presented an interesting account of the happenings at the St. Louis Meeting of the Teachers of Mathematics. For the first meeting of the year, the members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Mills and the Christmas party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Larsen.

The events which stand out most in the minds of the members are the Homecoming Breakfast and the Annual Banquet. At the banquet, Professor Rutt of the University of Chicago was the speaker.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA

Kappa Phi Kappa is a national professional educational fraternity. The Alpha Tau chapter is located at Illinois State Normal University. It was founded in May, 1931, chiefly by Dr. C. F. Malmberg, Dr. H. A. Peterson, and Professor C. E. Decker, and has enjoyed five successful years.

The primary purpose of Kappa Phi Kappa is "to promote the cause of education by encouraging men of sound moral character and recognized ability to engage in the study of its principles and problems. For the furtherance of this purpose, the fraternity emphasizes among its members social intercourse, scholarly attainments, and professional ideals."

The local chapter promotes and participates in various campus activities as well as educational projects. Its members are found in every variety of campus activity. Alpha Tau and Kappa Delta Epsilon, the educational organization for women, sponsored jointly a Homecoming banquet. This year it was well attended, and was held at the Rogers Hotel in Bloomington. At Homecoming time, Kappa Phi Kappa participated in the house decorating contest and won eighth place.

This year for the first time, Kappa Phi Kappa is awarding a neat prize, well worthy of achievement, to the most capable man student teacher of 1935-36 of I.S.N.U. This year, all monthly meetings have been dinner meetings of business and entertainment.

The programs of interest are those of the nature of open forum discussions on educational problems or anything of interest to the fraternity; panel discussions; current events; special speakers, one of the most important being the national secretary, Arthur D. Wright, one of the original founders from Dartmouth.

Another important function is the pledging and initiation of new members into the fraternity. A banquet is given in honor of the new members. There are two initiations a year, a third is held during the summer session. The fraternity has an average membership of 25 men on the campus each year.

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu is the National Social Science Honor Society for junior and senior students. Illinois Theta chapter was organized on this campus May 22, 1930. Students are eligible when they have an average of eighty-five in twenty semester hours of social science.

Theta chapter endeavors to inculcate high ideals of scholarship, a scientific attitude and method, and social service in the study of all social problems. Twenty-seven students were initiated at the informal service on October 9; later at a formal ceremony in Fell Hall on November 20, 1935.

The Homecoming banquet was held on Saturday, October 26, at Hotel Tilden-Hall.

Many interesting programs were presented in the course of the year. Miss Margaret Romanus of Decatur High School gave an interesting account of her travels in Hawaii, Mr. W. A. L. Beyer of the Social Science Department discussed the coming national election. Mr. Glasener with Mr. Weldon and Mr.

Davis presented in a panel discussion interesting sidelights concerning the agricultural situation.

On February 6, Wesleyan Pi Gamma Mu invited the Normal chapter to a dinner at Roland's Tea Room. Later Dr. Karg, Korean professor at New York University addressed the group at Presser Hall on the Chino-Japanese situation in Manchukuo.

During the year, Pi Gamma Mu has stressed the social as well as the scholastic aspects of achievement. Picnics both at Lake Bloomington and Forest Park, parties in the Student Lounge, and dinner meetings have not been unusual.

The last important event of the year is the party held in the Student Lounge, at which Wesleyan chapter were our guests.

Pi Gamma Mu voted early in the year to subscribe to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for the Main Library.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta, National honorary forensic fraternity, had a very active year this year. With Virginia Abbott acting as president, Ruth Hoffman as vice-president, and Sarah Lee Meyer as Secretary-Treasurer, the organization held frequent business meetings throughout the year.

In January, Dr. F. Lincoln D. Holmes, Dr. Paul

Royalty and Miss Ruth Yates, all faculty members, were initiated into the society.

A body of seven Pi Kappa Deltas represented Illinois State Normal University at the National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Houston, Texas, in April.

PI OMEGA PI

Pledge service for new members was held on October 15, 1935, in the Women's Lounge. Formal initiation of the pledges was held on November 19 at the home of Margaret K. Peters in Bloomington. Albert C. Fries, instructor in the Commerce Department, was voted in as an honorary member. Four juniors were also taken in: Ruth Glasener, Normal; Julia Pittman, Fairbury; George White, Stanford; and Theos Anderson, Elliott.

Pi Omega Pi had its annual Homecoming banquet for members, both active and alumni, on Saturday, October 26, 1935, in the Green Room at the Hotel Tilden-Hall.

A Christmas party was held in the Student Lounge on December 17, 1935. Progressive games were played.

THETA ALPHA PHI

Theta Alpha Phi, the national honorary dramatic fraternity, is the oldest organization of its kind in the United States. The Delta chapter was established at I.S.N.U. in 1926.

The tenth anniversary of the founding of the local chapter was celebrated with a Founder's Day dinner held at Roland's Tea Room in April.

The annual spring initiation, the high point of the year, was held at Allendale, home of Miss Mabel Clare Allen, sponsor of Theta Alpha Phi and director of the University Theatre, in May. An entire day is devoted to the proceedings which include a picnic lunch, the formal initiation ceremonies, and a glorious chicken dinner.

At Homecoming, Theta Alpha Phi co-sponsored with the Jesters the annual reception after the play. Then a midnight breakfast was held at Milber's after the reception. In January, a joint meeting was held with the Wesleyan chapter at which Dr. Schultz, former editor of The Cue spoke.

The Theta Alpha Phi play this year was "Cradle Song" by Martiney Sierra.

NORMAL'S WAY BECOMES ORTHODOX IN AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

By C. A. Harper

The history of education in America cannot be truly written without the story of the Illinois State Normal University. More than any other institution or agency it set the pattern for normal schools in the seventies of the last century. It was at this time not only the mother of western normals but it was "orthodox" for teacher training in America. In the nineties it led what is perhaps the most significant movement in the development of American educational theory and practice. The American Herbartian movement was distinctly a contribution of the Illinois State Normal University.

The early years of the twentieth century saw the rise of teachers' colleges. Here Normal's great service was in keeping the newly-developed teachers' colleges true to the first word in their titles. Here again Normal was perhaps the leader in holding these new institutions in line with the normal school ideals and in the avoidance of aping the liberal arts colleges. The determining influence in this leadership was the pragmatic viewpoint and stubborn individualism of David Felmley.

The decade 1850-1860 was one of tremendous expansion in Illinois. Never was the dawn of a new era such a tangible thing. Illinois awoke to a realization of power and dignity. It was the day of vision and big ideas. The founding of a Normal University was one of the most outstanding achievements of the period. The very word "Normal University" gave birth to a new concept in the way of educational institutions. It contemplated a much wider scope than an ordinary normal school. It was to be a normal raised to the dignity, thoroughness and maturity of a university.

The Illinois State Normal University was the first normal to be established in the Mississippi Valley and for an entire generation it was the most important institution of higher learning in the State of Illinois. Not being overshadowed by an older and well-established state university and being founded on the crest of a wave of great expansion and progress in Illinois, it was in a position to attempt great things. It was started under the hopeful and expectant eyes of an awakened people, who, perhaps, were most optimistic in regard to what public education might do for all the people than has been the case in any other large group of people with the possible exception of Germany at the close of the Napoleonic period or France in the new world of 1793.

With a place of dignity and prestige from the beginning, the Illinois State Normal University shouldered its responsibilities. It was anxious to justify the faith of the state. Leadership was expected to come from Normal in all educational matters. Its president and faculty were looked to as authorities. By 1870 the Normal University was the largest and best supported normal school on this continent. Its president, Richard Edwards, was first among normal school presidents and probably the foremost educator in the land. Its proud position in the State was an inspiration and challenge to the eastern normals. It had arrived!

The two decades between 1890 and 1910 were in many ways the most significant in the whole history of education in the United States. In this period education became recognized by our universities and colleges as coördinate in importance with law, medicine, and engineering. But far more important than this, there came to the elementary class-room teacher the consciousness that science and philosophy were at work on her problems. The practical teacher was given for the first time some ideas and practices which dignified and professionalized her work. The Herbartian movement really got into American education.

It would be difficult to make a greater mistake than to believe that American Herbartianism was but an imitation of the German movement. It was more DeGarmo, the McMurrays, and Van Liew than it was Herbart, Ziller and Rein. It came from Normal, Illinois. Jena gave it merely a vocabulary and prestige.

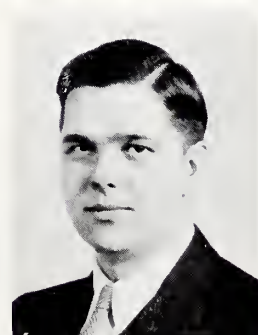

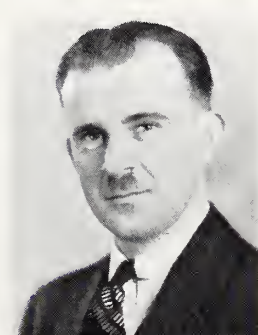

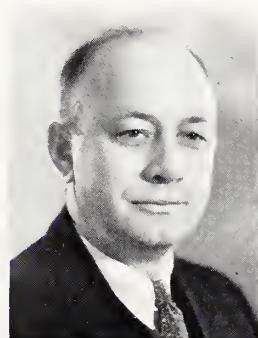

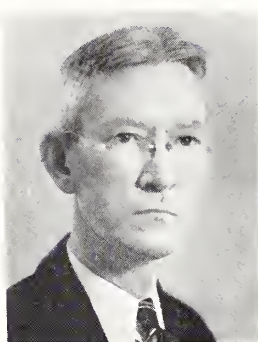

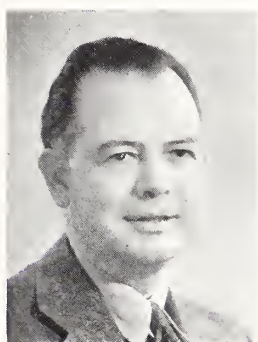

I believe that the teachers' college idea owes a great debt to the Illinois State Normal University. It was to a certain degree the prestige of this institution, her long history of educational leadership in her own state, the national reputation of her former presidents, Edwards and Cook, the fact that "Old Normal" was orthodox for normal schools of the great West, and most of all, the aggressive nature of her great president, David Felmley, that placed the Illinois State Normal University in a crucial position in the success of the teachers' college movement.

The pageant, "The Lighter of Flames" was based on the material found in "The Development of the Teachers' Colleges in the United States, with Special Reference to the Illinois State Normal University," written by Charles A. Harper and published in connection with the Diamond Jubilee celebration. The entire pageant was produced under the direction of Mabel Clare Allen and Janet K. Smith. It clearly portrayed the history of Illinois State Normal University by showing through a personification how Knowledge with her disciples—Youth and the Maiden, with Age and Experience advising, proceeded to instruct the child.

The seventy-five years of our school history was divided into seven periods, which may be described briefly as follows:

I—FOUNDING—1857-1860

Various characters and groups represented the pioneers, adventurous spirits, who gathered into new communities and built on this virgin prairie the foundation of our school and state.

II—WAR—1861

This period was portrayed by group action, showing how the various aspects of life before the Civil War period were broken into by the chaos of martial music, how the newly established school was set ablaze with eagerness, and how to the impetuous ones came Charles Edward Hovey, the principal of the college, to dissuade them from precipitate action.

III—EASTERN INFLUENCE—1857-1863

This period in the school's growth was shown by a group of students representing the Puritans, New England authors, and other groups from a section of the country vigorous in its conservatism and unyielding principles, but which produced many who came west to establish here their hatred of sham, their impassioned and zealous energy.

IV—WESTERN INFLUENCE—1865

The new college was no longer an outpost of the wilderness, but was in the heart of a section that rejoiced in its virgin richness, a wealth that flowed over the brim of her local boundaries into the ever-advancing frontier.

V—SCIENCE—1867

It is at this time that we find the American wilderness being explored by Major John Powell, Curator of the Natural History Museum of the University. He was sent, at the request of Congress to investigate the lives of lone trappers, gold miners, and Indians in order that scientific research might be aided and advanced—which in turn lends to that understanding and mastery of Nature that elevates civilized man above the savage.

VI—EUROPEAN INFUSION—1887-1894

This scene of the pageant shows clearly the progressive attitude of our fast-growing school. The sons of Normal were not content with exerting their influence in the great West, but journeyed to Europe and in the schools of liberal Germany sought out the most enlightened methods for teaching under the masters in the field of education. Imbued with the educational theories of Herbart, they transformed them to meet American conditions, thus accelerating our already fast-growing standards.

VII—EXPANSION—1900-1930

The pageant closed by portraying how, throughout the 20th century, the school has combined the ideals and traditions of the past with the enrichment of a modern society to produce new pillars of strength and dignity. May our prayer be that this institution contribute an ever-increasing service to a state and a nation that is viewed by all the world as a rainbow of hope for a struggling humanity.

SUMMARY OF PRODUCTION

Not since the founding of this University, and in all probability, not for many decades in the future, will any production comparable to the Diamond Jubilee be produced. This great celebration required the cooperation of an army of well over five-hundred students, aside from the many faculty members to whom must go the credit for the organization, perfection, and smoothness of one of the most gigantic undertakings ever attempted in this school's history. This production required facilities for an audience alone of approximately two thousand people whose comfort and well-being had to be provided for to a very exacting degree. No one who attended the pageant can deny that this angle was slighted, for the committee on whose shoulders rested this responsibility, clearly showed their adeptness by seating the audience in a great semi-circle on the lawn just south of the driveway, in such a manner that all could rest comfortably, see clearly, and hear every word distinctly. The lighting committee deserved much commendation, too, for this group carefully worked out sound and lighting effects which gave much strength to the whole general impression.

S u m m a r y

Every musical organization on the campus merged in this production. The revered songs of Philadelphian and Wrightonian literary societies were prominent, popular melodies of days gone by were sung, and the traditional "Follow the Gleam" symbolized the spirit of the early meetings of the Y.W.C.A.

To the costuming committee goes the credit for performing the tedious and difficult task of assembling the many antiquities and heirlooms of the past for use in the pageant. Such articles as the flowered muslin frock with a bustle and seven petticoats that somebody's great-grandmother wore in the Mauve decade, button shoes, and "rats" were not easily located. However, by turning practically every attic in Normal and the surrounding country-side topsy-turvy, the costume committee found actual outfits that were worn in the periods depicted by the pageant. Many students, who in their more childish days played "dress-up," cooperated with the committee and disinterred from the old attic trunk many a hoarded treasure that found an important place in the dress of some belle of early I.S.N.U.

"The Lighter of Flames" was the most impressive and undoubtedly the most involved and elaborate dramatic production ever presented during Old Normal's seventy-five years of existence. Weeks of patient practice and rehearsal were culminated by a production that was, with a minimum of expected disappointments, a well-rounded piece of staging. There are so many angles of the production that can not be covered thoroughly here that I feel that I am leaving out a great many recollections concerning it. The pictures accompanying this very brief summary should help recall some of the features and effects created by, and for the pageant. Every department could not be covered photographically, however.

TOUR

The long awaited "All Aboard" started a group of twenty-six eager students, under the direction of Dr. H. O. Lathrop, on a forty-four day laboratory excursion which was to include fourteen states east of the Mississippi and the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, and Ontario.

Leaving Normal the group, transported by the "Red Bird" bus and the commissary truck, journeyed south through the oil fields of south-eastern Illinois and arrived in Vincennes, Indiana, early the same afternoon. Representatives of the Association of Commerce cordially escorted the group to the George Rodgers Clark Memorial and other points of interest of the city which is by no means ashamed of the French derivation of its name.

The next morning we embarked for the journey which carried us deep into eastern Kentucky, that section of character colour and non-exported corn (in the kernel form). Those tales you hear of that section are not entirely false; and even though, it was reported, the election time does not add too greatly to the mountaineer death list, the people of the Kentucky mountains still are governed by the traditional customs of their most "romantic" ancestors. Proof? At Middlesboro, Kentucky, local rumor had it that the city's most prominent citizen—we stretched the meaning of citizen—had of late been charged with the misdemeanor of having shot six persons. But rumor, as ever, proved a false guide . . . The secretary of the Commerce Association visited our camp, which was then in the evening shadows that shrouded the historic site of Cumberland Gap, and depicted in a most pleasant manner the coal mining industry and its relationship to the social and economic lives of the people of that section of Kentucky.

After passing through this historic passageway of American pioneers, we headed southwest and motored through the Great Smoky Valley. Enroute we visited the Norris Dam project, that magnitudinous undertaking which checks the flow of the Clinch River. We sensed the vastness of this governmental undertaking as we viewed Norris City—President Roosevelt's model, modern dwelling place of the T. V. A. employees.

In contrast to this modern achievement of the twentieth century, the Great Smokies was the next phenomenon to be enjoyed. Truly an inspiring sight it is—that smoky haze resting on the horizon, the characteristic which has given that mountainous region its name—Great Smokies!

After completing our journey through this area recently set aside as a National Park we found ourselves motoring across more level ground, or as the geographers put it, the Piedmont Plateau. For an instant our thoughts hearkened back to Normal's well-known collegiate smoking dens—we were at Winston-Salem, the home of the "toasted cigarette."

Hospitable, these Lucky Strikers. They not only showed us how the best cigarette in the world was made but gave each of us a package. Smoking or no, within a short space of six hours we found ourselves in Danville, Virginia. What with given the rare privilege of camping on the spacious lawn of a boys' preparatory school and enjoying the hospitality of these southern people, we were forced to regret that we middlewesterners might well improve in that art of hospitality.

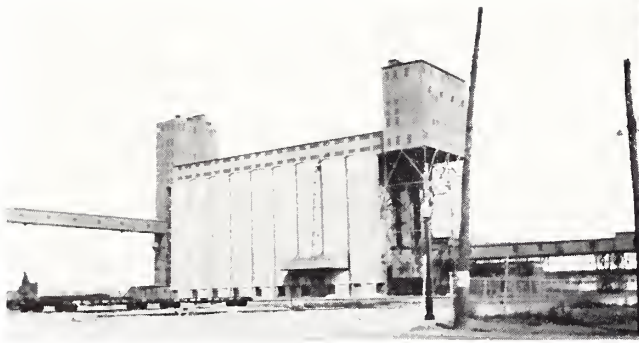

Recrossing the Great Smoky mountains at a more northerly section, commonly known as the Blue Ridge, we passed into the Shenandoah Valley. We chanced upon this path of General Sheridan's devastating march at a most opportune time. We realized why that area is known as the best agricultural section in that part of the United States—harvest was at its height. Natural phenomena we also saw. Caves and caverns are numerous in and around Newmarket, Virginia, and naturally enough we chose to visit one. Endless Caverns was our choice. This two-mile venture into the bowels of the earth was made most fantastic by the life-like formations of rock and the subterranean gurgling of underground water.

Next we turned our thoughts to the Nation's Capital and headed east for Washington, D. C. Along this journey to the Capital we saw many signs reminding us of the Civil War battles which had been fought there. True, war replicas would have been prized possessions, but time did not warrant the search. The one lucky connoisseur was Kenny Knight—a bullet found in Cumberland Gap.

Our stay at the Capital was a very busy one, as you might suspect, and also, a very hot one. We had been told before we arrived that it would be the hottest place on the trip and true enough it was. Our visits numbered the Capitol, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Congressional Library, Lincoln Memorial, White House, Smithsonian Institute, Mount Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery. The one disappointment we had was that President Roosevelt did not greet us!

Gettysburg! THE battlefield of the Civil War was our destination as we left Washington and journeyed northward. Traveling over this large battlefield with an excellent guide we realized as never before the terrific struggle those soldiers encountered. This was one of the most interesting historical spots on the tour.

Our next stop was Valley Forge where Washington and his men spent the winter of 1777-1778. Pausing here only for the night, we continued our journey to the nation's largest city, New York. For our part New York included a boat trip around Manhattan Island, a tour through Rockefeller Center, the steamship Bremen, New York City Hall, Wall Street and colorful sites around Times Square. Two days in the great Metropolis . . . we were eager to be on our way up the New England coast to Plymouth, Massachusetts, there to view the rock upon which the Pilgrims supposedly stepped when they reached the mainland of North America. And here is one for Ripley! During our two-day stay Kenny Knight, Freeman Lathrop and French Haussler CAUGHT fish in the deep waters . . . Fish for all! Leaving Plymouth via chuck-wagon and bus we swung northwest to Boston . . . Old North Church! Old Ironsides! Harvard Museum! Boston Common! Boston Navy Yard! Bunker Hill! Longfellow's home and grave!

On we traveled along the "stern and rock-bound" coast of New England in the cool ocean breeze amidst the scent of the balsam fir. Yes, it was truly a romantic atmosphere and it was not difficult to find students writing — "home" (?). We had looked forward to swimming in the ocean but to our surprise we found the bathers seeking the inland water bodies, for the salt water was too cold.

The last beauty spot along the New England coast was Acadia National Park located on Mount Desert Island. Here a great uplift of crystalline rock was later rounded off by the intense erosion of the glacier and is now one of the beauty spots of eastern United States. Some of the party climbed one of the mountains which rises several hundred feet above the ocean level.

Our next stop was St. John, in the province of New Brunswick, where we observed the 35-foot tides of the Bay of Fundy and saw the excellent port of St. John.

It wasn't long until we were in the province of Nova Scotia where we visited Grand Pre, the land of Evangeline, which Longfellow made famous in his poem; and Fort Anne at Annapolis Royal. Also we saw the great apple-growing region in the Annapolis-Cornwallis valley which produces from one to two million barrels of apples each year.

Leaving Nova Scotia we retraced our previous route back into New Brunswick. Then up to the capital of the province—Fredericton, where we had difficulty in finding a place to pitch camp. After a night at Fredericton we were on our way along the beautiful St. John River which is known as the "Rhine of Canada"—a most deserving name!

Edmunston gave us our first taste of French Canada. French it was both in language and custom! It was difficult to understand how the short span of the St. John River effected the difference between this French province and its across-the-river neighbor, the U. S. A.

Next day, our journey took us along the St. Lawrence River to Quebec, the heart of French Canada. At Quebec we visited the Plains of Abraham, on which Montcalm met defeat at the hands of Wolfe; Sainte Anne de Beaupre, the Catholic shrine; and the Citadel of Quebec. From Quebec, we went up the St. Lawrence to the second largest port in North America, Montreal. Here we visited the port, and went through a large grain elevator and cold storage warehouse; we visited the Cathedral of Notre Dame, and finished our visit by climbing to the top of Mount Royal, which overlooks the city of Montreal and affords an excellent view of the surrounding country.

Since we had visited the Capitol of the United States, we deemed it only fair to visit the Capitol of Canada and see how it compared with ours. Our decision, after visiting the Capitol at Ottawa, Ontario, was that Canada, too, has an excellent central salon. The city was undoubtedly one of the most beautiful visited on the tour. While here we visited the Dominion Observatory where Kenny Knight tells us he saw the "moonshine."

From Ottawa we headed south to the region of the Thousand Islands where we enjoyed swimming in the waters of the St. Lawrence, and a forty-five mile boat trip among the Thousand Islands.

We then traveled along the shore of Lake Ontario to the ever-popular Niagara Falls where we took in almost every scenic trip that was offered and really learned the history and geology of that area. After we had been at Niagara two days, we were ready to move on to Windsor, Ontario, where we camped while visiting Detroit, Michigan. In Detroit we visited the Ford Motor Company plant, Edison Institute Museum and Village, and then took a trip up the Detroit River to Lake St. Clair. Leaving Windsor we were checked by the customs men of Uncle Sam to see what we had gathered in the Dominion and fortunately they didn't catch any one—not even Frenchy and Freeman. Then we traveled across Michigan to St. Joseph on the shores of Lake Michigan where we all agreed that we found the best swimming of the tour. We spent an extra day here instead of going to Chicago as previously planned. With this extra day the group went through a furniture factory and then arrived back at camp in time to enjoy a swim, and after the evening meal, we had our last campfire. Everyone was happy, for tomorrow we would be on our last day's journey of the 5600-mile tour, and would find ourselves back on the campus of Illinois State Normal University.

No one seemed to care about going to bed and when they did go they weren't there very long for we broke camp early, and by 5:30 were on our way home. By noon we were back in Normal, thus ending our great laboratory study of nature.

This tour was somewhat different from any tours taken heretofore—in that six weeks were devoted to the tour itself and two weeks to the classroom. The students attended school the first week of the summer session and then embarked on the six weeks' tour—returning to the campus the eighth week to summarize the knowledge they had gained on the trip.

Detailed account of such a tour is impossible in so short a space and one can fully appreciate such a trip only by joining the "Red Birds" and seeing for one's self the excellent type of education that it is.

FRESHMAN WEEK

We, the freshmen of I.S.N.U., on reaching the pinnacle of glory after twelve years of learning and feeling quite competent and wise, came to Normal only to find how insignificant and verdant we really were. We were rather awe-stricken at first upon entering the school with all its buildings, classrooms, teachers, and students; but the hospitality of President Fairchild, the teachers, and the upperclassmen soon made us feel as though we really belonged here. Freshman Week had much to do in giving us this feeling.

Excitement ran high on September ninth as the freshmen prepared to attend the opening assembly in Capen Auditorium. After an address of welcome by President Fairchild and an explanation of courses for various teaching fields by Dean Schroeder, there was an introduction of division heads—a new feature this year, greatly appreciated by the students.

Another new feature, the conducted tours through the buildings of the campus, was introduced by Mr. Hammerlund. An upperclassman took charge of approximately thirty students, and conducted the group around the campus pointing out the buildings, the home-management house, the school farm, and other points of interest. After the tours everyone reassembled in the auditorium where instructions for registration were given.

The remainder of the morning and the afternoon were given over to registration and program making. After enrolling, paying our fees, and buying our books, few of us were in an appropriate humor to have our pictures taken for our activity tickets. Perhaps this explains in part the many comical pictures that students are presenting for admission to the movies, basketball games, and other activities.

All thoughts of fatigue were forgotten when the freshmen assembled in the evening in Capen Auditorium for group singing, and the movie, Flirtation Walk, which was vigorously applauded by everyone.

All of the freshmen were required to take tests in English, arithmetic, reading, intelligence, and science. These tests, though not entrance examinations, were used as a basis for grouping the students in classes. It was rumored that some staggered as they left the test room!

What freshman didn't attend the "get acquainted" party? Again we were grateful to the upperclassmen who acted as leaders for the various groups, and who told us how to play bag pop, club snatch, balloon volleyball, circle acquaintance, and many other games. After clever little hats were distributed, everyone joined in the grand march. Dale Miller and his orchestra furnished music for the dance that followed.

On September twelfth work began for everyone. The wheels began to turn immediately, although a little irregularly at first. Our life at I.S.N.U. had begun.

—Loretta Nowack

Might I add here that Freshman Week means a little more than just a chance for the upperclassmen to assert their "authority of rank"—more than a chance for the "men about college" to "sort the apples"—more than a three day extension of credit till the books open(?). It means a transitional period for some seven hundred or more young people. An influx of new potentialities; new responsibilities placed with the leaders, both of the Administration and the students, the successful carrying out of which should produce worthwhile results.

INTRODUCTION

Tuesday—Concentrated yelling, the House Decorating Skit, the Hobo Ventriloquist (plus puppet) and a scene from the Milky Way were the means of previewing the '35 Homecoming Events.

MITTS, MUTTS, AND MILK

Three nights of laughter revolved around that galactic offering—The Milky Way. The crowds who saw the play were so entangled in the mixture of Boxing gloves, dainty St. Bernards, Pills, and Promoters that, when the well-known product from contented cows brought the play to its conclusion, I.S.N.U. talent via the footlights was at its best.

PEPPER

Between the sixth and the seventh hours Friday the walls of the Capen Auditorium reverberated. Some forty "husky brutes" on the stage watched newcomers match lung power with the regular upperclassmen. After the leather-lunged supporters of those some forty gridmen had strained their vocal apparatus, the Campus leaders voiced the sincerity of the several organizations of the school in backing the team. Mr. Hammerlund, general Chairman of all Homecoming activities, pointed out that the week-end was a mountain of enjoyment and that the outcome of the football game would determine the height that the peak would reach. Coaches Hancock and Frye and Co-Captains Murray and Custer asked for the support of the entire student body. President Fairchild, after listening to another "yell," told them that they had that support.

TUG-O-WAR

At 4:30, the Freshmen and Sophomores, white-flannel clad, started a tug of war on the South Campus. A few minutes later the Sophomores were dragged to a humiliating and drenching defeat. The Freshies saw that many of their arch-tormentors received their water a la mode before they accepted the crown.

LIGHTED SPLENDOR

Friday evening thirty-two decorated houses were lighted and ready to be judged according to their merits. University Club and Smith Hall members "added another feather to their cap" when they affixed "Another Scalp for I.S.N.U." The Indian Scene that decorated the Men's Dormitory showed The Normal Chieftain triumphant over the fallen Huron.

The girls of 210 Normal Avenue won second prize by picturing the marriage of Miss Victory to Mr. Normal while rejected Mr. Ypsilanti was forced to look on.

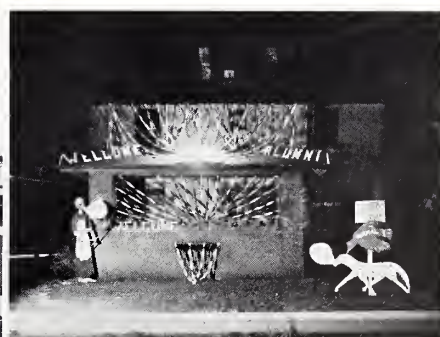

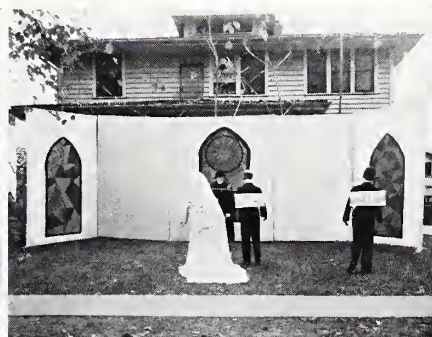

The Bachelors' Club decoration was awarded third prize. It showed an old lady calling to her dog, Silanti. A cardinal was giving him "A Peck of Trouble."

Fourth prize went to the Nature Study Club. Their decoration, "De End of De Tail" had the red bird biting the Ypsilanti dog's tail.

The balcony scene at 207 N. School took fifth prize. Victorious Normal was ascending the ladder to his love—Miss Victory.

At 8:30 P. M. the doors of McCormick Gymnasium were swung open. The University's dance floor Book of Homecoming Celebrities was ready for its debut. The walls of the gymnasium had been transformed into indirectly lighted bookshelves. Bound volumes were lined on every side. Here and there a book was opened showing one of the main characters in the '35 Homecoming. Two cardinals formed the background for the orchestra dias. Varicolored octagonal chandeliers provided the light necessary for smooth dancing. Ace Brigode and his Virginians supplied the music while the Homecomers added the tempo.

October 26

EARLY BIRDS

While the majority of the boys were still buried in their covers, their girl friends were celebrating together. Many were at the Women's League Ten-Year Celebration Breakfast at the Methodist Church. Others were chattering over their coffee at the Hieronymus Club Breakfast in Gretchen's Kitchen and a number were at the Physical Education Group's gathering in the W. A. A. room at the Gym.

Kappa Mu Epsilon members, regardless of sex, abandoned their beds to attend the mathematics fraternity breakfast.

THROW 'EM OUT!

Long before whetted appetites had been satisfied, a complete assortment of bums had come to a standstill within Old Normal's portals. Ranging from starving urchins to Begging Monarchs, the group awaited a guiding hand. An official car, followed by the Scouts and the I.S.N.U. Band assumed this responsibility, and as modern Pied Pipers, enticed the ruffian clan onto the streets of Normal.

First of the Hobo contestants was Pringle-Hall's Hard Times Reptile. The dragon was "taken" so thoroughly that those who helped give it its last long ride captured the first prize in the contest. The Philadelphians, Science Club, Alpha Tau Alpha, and Wrightonians heeded the beckoning music and fell in with the procession. Then followed the Industrial Arts Club's "Hobo Follies." This bit of splendor, presenting four Chor(e)-us Boys in scanty attire and accompanied by the music of a steam calliope, danced into second honors. The University Club float, the Fell Hall brigade, and the Maize-Grangers were next in order. Then came the Soldiers and Sailors Children's School Drum and Bugle Corps. Behind this group Hieronymus Club exalted the lowly spud to Royalty and their own organization to fifth place. Succeeding this group were the Home Economics Majors, the Lowell Masons and the Social Science members. Five bums, representing the Commerce Club, followed with a make-shift adding machine that pecked away ever-increasing football scores. When the group had reached the judging line, Normal's score had mounted into the hundreds, and their idea had "topped" all but three in favor. The Freshies, Pi Kappa Delta, and Intermediate Teachers' Club each added an idea for Homecoming. The Kindergarten Club as "Our Gang" (of movie fame) gave its version of the Take-Off and did it so well that the group was awarded third prize. University Club, Gamma Phi, the Jesters, and Nature Study Club completed the list of contesting organizations.

The freak of the ages, half-woman and half-man, bowed majestically at one instant and in the next courtied gracefully. Lyle Maxwell took individual honors for his idea. Johnny Weldon and his "Plug-drawn-sled" creation were placed second. Other priceless gems followed, adding color and giving a splendid cross-section of beggared humanity.

THE LENS

Below—Play to win!*

After the last hobo had passed the judges' stand, another group was assembling on the field. One by one the guardians of well-groomed lip coverings deserted the sanctity of the McCormick Field bleachers. The judges, Dean Barton, Dean Linkins, and Tommy Benten, concluded that Nathan Hays' chestnut-hued spoon sweeper was the winner by a hair's breadth over Gene Rodeghiero's offering. The defeated "also rans" hurried home and applied the lather.

NOTE!

The Alumni Hockey Team bowed to the W. A. A. Varsity Club-handlers 3-2.

In the Marching Band contest, Moweaqua was awarded first in the Class C Division. The Normal Community Band was unchallenged in the Class B group. Kankakee High School, the winner of Class A last year, repeated the sterling performance this year and was acclaimed one of the outstanding marching bands in the country.

During the mid-day intermission, the Lowell Mason Club, Kappa Delta Pi, and the Intermediate Teachers' Club had banquets at different churches in Normal. Kappa Delta Epsilon and Kappa Phi Kappa met for luncheon at the Rogers Hotel, Bloomington. The Art Club met at the Campus Inn.

THE GAME

Normal won the toss from Ypsilanti and chose to receive. Unable to gain, the Cardinals started a punting duel. The Red and White line became easy prey for spinners at first, but a lack of other workable plays put the Michigan team on the "spot." Aerial attack was fruitless, for passes on either side were a benefaction to the opposing team. Evans took advantage of one of these mishthrows and picked up twenty-one yards on the road to Normal's "pay-off" line.

O F T H E

C A M E R A

The I.S.N.U. line, bolstered in the second period by Dick Welty's shifty side-stepping, kept the Indians on their heels almost the entire quarter. But the green-clads spiked the ball and through a series of short gains, carried the "pig-skin" deep into Normal territory. Before any damage was done, all the holes were plugged and the ball was returned to safe territory.

Cogdal's "wind conservers" showed the Charleston men their heels in the Cross Country Event. Normal's Thinly-clads captured seven of the first eight places.

Shortly after play was resumed, Dick Welty broke loose and trotted the ball deep into enemy territory. Goren and Jackson added yardage, but with the goal a scant six yards ahead the Birds were halted by a solid wall of Indian Green-Clads. This spill zeroed Normal's only great scoring threat.

A burst of speed on the part of Ypsilanti in the final period was almost disastrous. Jabsen saved the day by pulling a Michigan pass out of the air, and ended the last thrust goalward. Chief Cardinal did not succeed in adding another scalp to his collection, but he did send the Huron Chieftain home without any blood on his tomahawk, either.

EAT, DRINK, AND BE MERRY

After the game, banquets and dinners reigned in all their glory. Those in the Rural Curriculum met for dinner at the Baptist Church while Gamma Theta Upsilon members were banqueting at the Presbyterian Church.

Pi Omega Pi and Pi Gamma Mu banquets were held at Tilden-Hall. The Kindergarten

Club and the Pi Kappa Delta Homecoming dinners were at Roland's Neo-Classic and Roland's Tea Room.

The W. A. A. met at the Maplewood Country Club for its banquet. Home Ec majors chose Room 54 for their reunion and feast, while the "N" Club went to the Y.W.C.A. banqueting hall.

Many alumnae and faculty members renewed old acquaintances or contacted new ones at the Faculty Reception in Fell Hall.

At the gymnasium, Art Kassel and his band were transforming the "glorified book-room" into a dreamy Paradise. For eager souvenir hunters the players' stage seemed as inaccessible as castles of old, but as the hours passed, long patience was rewarded—the coveted prize, an almost unreadable "Kassels in the Air" scrawled on a bit of paper.

Following the last showing of the Homecoming Play the Jesters and Theta Alpha Phi held a reception at the Student Lounge. Many of the orchestra players used their free entrance slips and joined the dance.

The Gamma Phi midnight banquet at the Campus Inn climaxed the Homecoming events for members of the gymnastic fraternity.

ALL GOOD THINGS MUST END

For those who were still "man (?) enough to take it" the Y.W.C.A. held Sunrise-Service at the Methodist church. The Newman Club breakfast at Hotel Rogers was the last formal activity. However, many Homecomers and their hosts or hostesses found things to do—into the wee, wee hours of Monday morning. We wonder . . .

REMEMBER THE POPULARITY CONTEST?

ATHLETIC PROGRAM

HOWARD HANCOCK

. . . A top-notch coach, an excellent executive, and, above all, a man's man are three fitting phrases to describe Howard J. Hancock. Since his arrival on the campus in 1931, Normal athletics have experienced a new buoyancy. His '35 football team lost but two games, and these were lost only after hard, fast ball game. The '36 baseball team, also under his guidance, has been one of the strongest aggregations in the Little Nineteen. The Coach has made a big impression . . . in several ways.

. . . Versatility is a word most applicable to Harold Frye for his great help in football, basketball, and baseball. In the fall he assists Coach Hancock handle the varsity gridmen. During the winter season he takes charge of the B team in Basketball. When spring rolls around he's back with Mentor Hancock and the Baseballers. Mr. Frye is a worker, and a regular fellow.

HAROLD FRYE

C A R D I N A L

COGDAL

. . . A maker of champions and one of the most thorough coaches in the conference is Joseph T. Cogdal. As he knows his sports and men so well, he has the power to work wonders with any team he comes in contact with. Last fall his cross-country creation won the conference championship for the fifth consecutive time. Not until the tail-end of the season did his basketball team fade as a championship contender. In the spring his track team, psychologically keyed, won the Teacher's College Championship.

. . . Using his promotional ability to the finest degree, Eugene Hill, an Old Normal alumnus, brought the finest intramural set-up in the state to this campus. Not content to rest on his laurels, he is further using his ingenuity to keep Normal on the top rung. Wrestling, an annually neglected sport, was brought to the fore under his leadership. In the spring his interests turned to tennis and he developed a typical strong Red Bird team.

NORMAL vs. SOUTH SIDE
NORMAL, ILLINOIS,
SEPTEMBER 28—

With a cast of fifty-five Cardinal gridmen seeing action, Normal eased through with a 29-0 victory over the South Side Junior College of Chicago in the season's opener at McCormick Field this afternoon.

The alleged game was not much of a football test, but it permitted a large number of athletes to get a taste of intercollegiate competition. In all but one instance the starting outfit figured in the point-getting. Feek and Koehler performed the exception when they knocked an aspiring Chicago punt beyond the end zone for an automatic safety.

By scoring three touchdowns and passing for the fourth, Les Murray was the big gun, offensively speaking. Two stellar sophomore linemen, Laverne Christensen and Ed Lesnick, performed brilliantly on defense for the Old Normal outfit.

NORMAL vs. DE KALB
NORMAL, ILLINOIS,
OCTOBER 5—

Settling accounts with a scoreless tie, Normal and De Kalb put on a fine exhibition of football before an appreciative, but taciturn, gathering of 1600 at McCormick Field this afternoon. The only score of the game, a field goal by Murray, was nilled when a holding penalty was inflicted against the Cardinal clan.

Paced by the diminutive Reino Nori, the Northern Pedagogues carried the fight to their side very decidedly in the first half. In the second half a spirited Red Bird team ran through and around the upstate lads to be stopped twice in the shadow of the goal posts by fifteen yard penalties. Trailing four to two in the matter of first downs at the half, Normal chalked up seven in the last half to take a nine to six margin.

Kenny Jackson, Dick Welty, Clarence Crawford, and Christensen stood out for the Cardinals.

CHARLESTON, ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 19

To further dampen the spirits of 2000 Eastern Illinois homecomers, Old Normal bombarded the hapless Panthers to the tune of 13-0 here this afternoon. A warm, sultry day made an air attack feasible, and the Birds used that weapon to blank the Charleston crew.

"Suds" Reid tossed a forty-five yard pass to "Deacon" Goren for the first tally. Outracing the Panther secondary, the Lincoln speed-boy snagged the long, spiral heave on the goal line. For the second tally Les Murray threw a flat pass to "Goon" Smith in the end zone. Murray also converted the extra point.

A squad of thirty-three made the trip, and all of the boys saw some action.

NORMAL, ILLINOIS, NOVEMBER 1

Not until the second half did the Battlin' Birds of Old

NORMAL, ILL., OCT. 12

—Two long runs, neither of which was the result of straight football, gave State Normal a 13-0 victory over the Southern Teachers at McCormick Field this afternoon.

After two minutes of play in the first quarter, Dick Welty gathered in a bounding punt on his own 30 yard line and loped 70 yards through the entire Carbondale team for a score. Les Murray's attempt at conversion was blocked.

With but 15 seconds of play remaining in the last quarter Harley Evans plucked a stray pass out of the air and scampered 45 yards for a tally. This time Murray's kick from placement was good.

The brilliant open field work of Welty was outstanding, offensively. Herbert Goren, Al Hansen, Don Smith, Win Bates, and Bob Haege were stalwarts on defense.

Normal show any superiority over a determined Eureka Red Devil aggregation at McCormick Field this afternoon. Two touchdowns and an extra point tallied in this period put the Cardinals on the long end of a 13-0 count.

A wet, slippery field, aided and abetted by a raw north wind, made for uncertain ball handling in the first half. A verbal lashing by Coach Hancock and a little extra goading by the student body whipped the boys into a fighting mood and two touchdowns resulted in the second frame. As the game ended, the Cardinals were just a foot away from another score.

Two highly touted lads came into their own for the first time this afternoon in the persons of Andy Jabsen and Bob Kile. With his high-stepping, hard-driving plunges, the former took offensive honors for the day. Kile was the Gibraltar of the line.

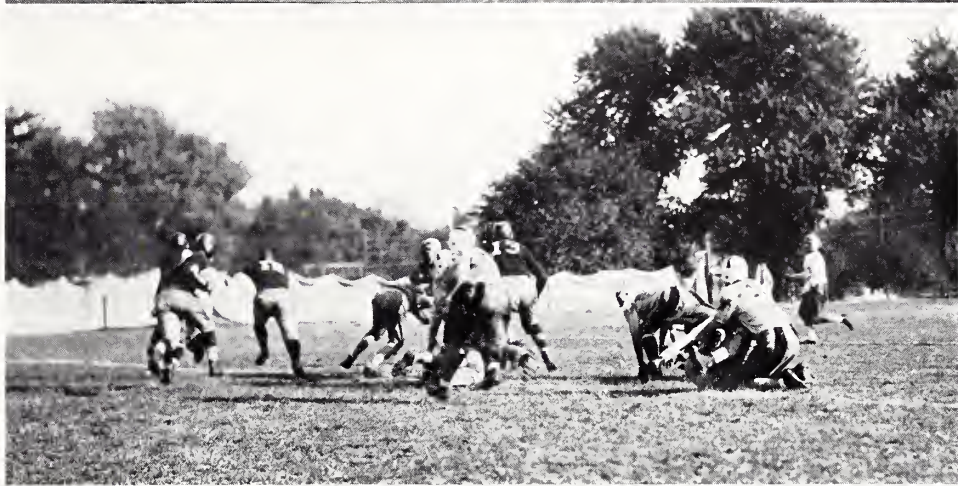

LEBANON, ILLINOIS,
NOVEMBER 9

Rain, mud and "Spike" Wilson combined to hand Normal its first defeat of the season as the McKendree Bearcats outwaded the Red Birds, 6-0 at Hypes Field this afternoon.

Early in the third quarter the slippery Wilson lad scooped up a Normal punt on his own 10-yard line and piloted a 90-yard course through the mire for the only score of the game. Les Murray paddled the opening kick-off back for 60 yards before he capsized in the uncertain going to spoil the Cardinal's best scoring chance.

The game was played in a drenching rain on a wind-swept field, ankle-deep in mud. Normal's band comprised fifty of the sixty people in attendance.

MACOMB, ILL., NOV. 23—After chalking up a touchdown in the first quarter, the Normal Red Birds perched back on their haunches to be entertained by an aerial circus staged by the Macomb Leathernecks here this afternoon. This rapid-fire display of Roy Hanson's charges supplied the punch for the final game of the season for both elevens.

Early in the game Dick Welty sallied across the goal line and Les Murray booted one from placement to begin and end the scoring for the day. After that, frequent saunters by both teams came to no eventual good. A high-flying, elusive pigskin kept the contestants in a fine humor, though.

NORMAL, ILL., NOV. 16—From Benson to Fulton! Twice that pass combination clicked to put Normal on the short end of a 13 to 6 score in the annual inter-city clash with Wesleyan held at McCormick Field this afternoon. After the Red Birds had tied the count in the third quarter, the Green Wave tallied the winning marker and converted the point with two minutes of play remaining.

Normal's first annual Dad's Day added much color to the partisan crowd of 3500. Starting slowly the Red Bird aggregation gradually gained momentum, tied the score, and then faded to come out on the short end. "Win" Bates, Normal's great tackle, was out with injuries and his services were greatly missed. Defensively Laverne Christensen and Ed Lesnick were standouts, while Dick Welty and Kenny Jackson looked best offensively.

"B" TEAM FOOTBALL

Coaches Goff and Bartholomew had charge of an aggregation about which a lot of you never heard, namely the "B" team. As you know, there are two prime purposes of a second team. One is to give the inexperienced players some experience and the other is to provide "cannon fodder" for the big team. The only reasons they are out there every night are that they love to play football and they get a satisfaction out of doing a good job.

Goff

The "B" team played two games, both with Charleston. On November 1, they journeyed to the Panther city and were set back by the close score of 9-7.

On November 15, Charleston came here for a game and never had a chance. The Birds were clicking, with the rest of the team paving the way for the runs of Rollie Lyons, Bill Balding, and Chet Alexander. The final tally was 33-0.

Coaches Goff and Bartholomew welded a great aggregation together which proved itself very creditably. Probably through their efforts some of the men on this year's "B" team will be helping tramp on Wesleyan next fall.

Coach Cogdal's long-striding harriers made the winning habit stronger and annexed another State championship. The habit is quite well fixed inasmuch as it has been the rule for the last six years. In fact, Normal's wins in this line of sports are becoming traditional.

The State Conference meet was held at Normal on November 16. With 23 points Cogdal's proteges won very handily, Western Teachers being second with 49 points. Bob Smith put up a real fight but couldn't overtake Ed Anderson of Charleston, who copped first. Of the ten individual medals awarded at the State meet, Normal won five of them.

Front Row—Mgr. Hildebrandt, B. May, Middleton, Asst. Mgr. Hardesty.

The recipients, Bob Smith, Jim Bush, Curt Smith, George May, and George Redden, finished, respectively, second, third, fifth, sixth, and eighth. Bill Herbster, who was expected to do well in this meet, was forced out because of illness.

The first meet of the season on October 12 was rather disastrous. Milwaukee Teachers sent a strong team to Normal. The score was 25-30 in favor of Milwaukee.

The next week Normal went to Elmhurst for a triangular meet with Elmhurst and Wheaton. Bill Herbster set a new course record for the Elmhurst course while Normal was winning easily.

The highly touted Charleston team furnished the opposition for the homecoming race. Herbster placed first with Bob Smith second while Normal won 18-41.

The team took part in the Loyola Invitational Run on November 2. First and second place went to the Rideout twins of the University of Illinois. In a blanket finish for third, fourth, fifth and sixth, Bill Herbster came out sixth, the first Normalite to finish. Bob Smith, Jim Bush, Andy James, and George May finished tenth, fourteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth respectively.

On November 8, Macomb brought her first team over to Normal for a dual meet. Bill Herbster, Bob Smith, Jim Bush, Curt Smith, George May, and Andy James crossed the line in that order before a Macomb runner finished. The score was 15-58 for Normal.

The hopes for another year are very high as all the letter winners, including Captain Curt Smith, will be back. At a post-season oyster supper held at Coach Cogdal's house the team elected Bill Herbster captain for the coming year.

I.S.N.U.—27 ARKANSAS STATE—25

Fortified by a bumper crop of freshmen, Coach Cogdal's basketeers opened the season against Arkansas State Teachers. Nineteen Redbirds broke into the lineup. The regulars built up a 15-5 half time lead. The second half saw a continual parade of red-shirted substitutes, and the doughty Arkansas team fought an uphill battle until they were within striking distance of the Cardinals. In this game, the Cogdalmen gained a 27-25 verdict. Don Adams led the scoring with nine points. The work of Kavanaugh at center, convinced Coach Cogdal that his search for a dependable center was ended, and that Captain Barton could be permanently retained at forward, his favorite position.

DECEMBER 14

I.S.N.U.—33 INDIANA STATE—32

I.S.N.U. and Indiana State played a game long to be remembered by the two thousand spectators who packed McCormick gymnasium. The smooth passing Hoosier quintet jumped to a long lead. Desperately the Birds pecked away at the Indiana basket and, with fifteen seconds of the game remaining, the Indiana team held a 32 to 31 lead. Then Captain Barney Barton was fouled under the Normal basket. A roar of approval greeted Barney as he made the points that, with ten seconds left to play, gave I.S.N.U. the lead by a one point margin. No more scoring was done. Barton, Sheahan, Kavanaugh and Adams did most of the scoring for Normal. Mikloyek, Indiana center, scored 13 points and played beautiful ball for the Hoosiers.

DECEMBER 19

I.S.N.U.—22 OSHKOSH TEACHERS—24

Showing a complete reversal of form from that displayed in the Indiana game, the Redbirds succumbed to the persistent attack of the Badger pedagogues. In this game the Redbirds jumped to an early 8-2 lead, despite ragged team play. Then Oshkosh countered a number of times from the free throw line, and the score at the half was 12 to 10 in favor of Normal. At the opening of the second half, Sheahan and Smith made baskets, and then the scoring punch died down. With four minutes of the game left to play, Normal held a 20 to 15 lead. But Daniels of Oshkosh sank two long shots, and converted a free throw within the next three minutes, and the score was tied at 20-20. In the last minute Oshkosh made two baskets in rapid succession. Normal scored a basket in the dying seconds of the game when Adams countered from midfloor. The game ended with Oshkosh on the long end of a 24-22 score.

DECEMBER 29

I.S.N.U.—41 WHEATON COLLEGE—29

Normal inaugurated its Little Nineteen activities with a convincing 41-29 decision over Wheaton. After the regulars had piled up an impressive lead, the freshman reserves were sent into the game. Jerome Ingerski was an outstanding performer of the freshman crew. The Redbird offense was too much for Wheaton. The rebounding of Barton and Kavanaugh helped swell the Normal total of points.

JANUARY 4

I.S.N.U.—27 OSHKOSH—23

During the Christmas recess, the Redbirds journeyed to Oshkosh for a return game with the Badger Teachers. The Redbirds emerged victorious in an overtime tilt by a score of 27-23, and thus gained revenge for the defeat at McCormick gym. It seemed that Oshkosh would snatch another close game from the Redbirds, when Ingerski sank a timely basket and a free throw to knot the score at 23 all. Overtime baskets by Smith and Michaels clinched the game.

JANUARY 10 I.S.N.U.—40 EUREKA—32

Meeting Eureka in its second conference game, I.S.N.U. trampled over the Crimson Scourge, 40-32. The regulars built up a 28-11 half time lead. In the second half, the reserves were used for the first 15 minutes, then the regulars were rushed in to stave off a Eureka rally. Barton led the Redbirds with 10 points; Balding scoring 7.

JANUARY 18 I.S.N.U.—52 DE KALB—23

With Glenn Jacquat eligible, the Redbirds had a starting lineup of Kavanaugh at center, Adams and Barton at the forward positions, and Balding and Jacquat at guards. This lineup tore the hapless Northern five to shreds, while holding them to a bare two field goals in the first half. Scoring honors in this game were evenly divided among Adams, Barton, Kavanaugh, Jacquat, and Balding. Coach Cogdal used fourteen men in this contest.

JANUARY 21

I.S.N.U.—29 ILLINOIS WESLEYAN—31

The Redbirds journeyed to Memorial Gym at Wesleyan to suffer their first Conference defeat of the season, a heart-rending 31-29 loss. Wesleyan jumped off to a lead, and at half time the score read 16-11 in their favor. With the opening of the second half Wesleyan dumped in three successive baskets to pile up an impressive 22-11 lead. Six minutes later the score was 27-26 in favor of Wesleyan. A free throw by Wesleyan was matched by a side-court basket by Adams to knot the score at 28 all. Then Horenberger dribbled the length of the floor to drop the winning basket. Horenberger and Wallace scored 9 counters each for Wesleyan. Barton and Adams led the Redbird offense with 9 and 12 points respectively. The uphill battle staged by the Redbirds was a magnificent sight. The play of Barton, Adams, Jacquat, and Kavanaugh rose to inspired heights.

JANUARY 25 I.S.N.U.—30 ST. VIATOR—22

It appeared that the St. Viator quintet was out to hand the Cardinals their second straight conference loss when the Irish jumped off to a lead in the first half. The score at the end of the first half was 16-14 in favor of the lads from Bourbonnais. But in the second stanza the Redbird scoring guns boomed into action, and the Birds jumped into a 27-18 lead with but four minutes remaining to play. Barton, Adams, and Jacquat led the scoring for Normal. Betourne, flashy Irish forward, played a stellar game for St. Viator.

JANUARY 27 I.S.N.U.—36 DE KALB—19

The hapless Northern pedagogues provided little opposition for the Cardinals, and the final score was 36-19. Kavanaugh and Balding were outstanding performers for Normal. Both men scored 9 points each.

FEBRUARY 1 I.S.N.U.—24 INDIANA STATE—28

In their return game played at Terre Haute, the Hoosiers eked out a 28-24 victory. Indiana made four baskets before the Normalites could rally and close the gap. At the end of the half the score was 15-10 in favor of the Terre Haute team. During the second half, while the Cardinals were making a bid to overcome the lead, Don Adams was injured and Willard Balding sustained a hurt wrist which shelved him for a few weeks. The loss of the two regulars wrecked the Normal scoring machine. Barton, with six points, led the Normal scoring.

FEBRUARY 4 I.S.N.U.—40 EUREKA—31

Eighteen points were scored by Dick Kavanaugh as the Cardinals upset the Red Devils. Barton scored 14 points, so that between Barton and Kavanaugh, enough points were amassed to defeat Eureka. Adams and Balding were missing from the lineup, and the Normal offense appeared out of gear. Weichert started his first conference game in the Eureka tilt. Michaels, clever little guard, played good ball for the Cardinals. Coke Taylor, speedy forward, scored twelve points for Eureka.

FEBRUARY 7 I.S.N.U.—39 CHARLESTON—36

Three freshmen led the way as the Cogdalmen defeated Charleston at Charleston. Marvin Hamilton, playing his first college game, clinched the game with field goals near the close of the game. Francis Michaels, the little dynamo, scored 9 points toward the cause. Captain Barton led the scoring with 11 points. Kavanaugh, at center, played his usual sterling game and contributed 9 points toward the Redbird total. In this game, it was clearly demonstrated that Normal basketball prospects for the next few years were bright.

FEBRUARY 11 I.S.N.U.—30 MILLIKIN—12

The Big Blue of Millikin appeared faded after the Cardinals subjected them to a 30-12 whitewashing. The loss of Delmar Cox, all-conference center, broke up the fast breaking Millikin team, and Normal had little trouble in winning.

Hamilton, appearing for the first time on the floor of McCormick gym, played spectacular ball and scored 8 points.

FEBRUARY 15

I.S.N.U.—29 ST. VIATOR—33

A complete turnabout of form on the part of both teams stunned Normal followers. It was a case of too much Straub. The former Bloomington High boy garnered six baskets to stifle Normal championship aspirations. The Bourbonnais lads held the lead throughout. At half-time the score was 18-13. Accurate, long distance shooting on the part of the Birds almost allowed them to catch up with the Irish. But basket number six by Straub squelched all hopes. Kavanaugh and Barton led the scoring for Normal.

FEBRUARY 18

I.S.N.U.—28 MILLIKIN—33

Avenging themselves for the humiliating defeat of the week previous, the Big Blue boys won a 33-28 decision over Normal. Normal led throughout the game until the closing minutes. With the score 28-27 in favor of the Redbirds, Goldman sent the Big Blue into the lead with a basket. Ausdal followed with another. A free throw by Hallihan completed the scoring. Don Adams notched 10 points for Normal. Hallihan scored 11 counters for Coach Leo Johnson.

FEBRUARY 21

I.S.N.U.—27 ILLINOIS WESLEYAN—31

In this second game, Normal jumped into an early lead, only to lose out in the closing minutes of as wild and exciting a game as was ever seen on the floor of McCormick gym. The final score was Wesleyan 31, Normal 27. At the close of the first half the score read 12-9, Normal. The Cardinals maintained their slight lead until late in the second half when Kavanagh and Balding were ejected on fouls. Adams and Barton scored for Normal to shove the Redbirds into a one point lead, with only a minute left to play. But Horenberger, all-conference guard, dribbled through for a basket that sent Wesleyan into the lead. Wallace, unmolested, scored an easy basket to clinch the game. 2300 persons thronged McCormick Gymnasium to witness this great battle.

FEBRUARY 26

I.S.N.U.—32 DE KALB—26

In the finale of the current season the Redbirds defeated the Northern pedagogues for the second time this season by a score of 32-26. Captain Barton paced the scorers with five field goals and a pair of free throws. This game was the last for Captain Barton, Johnny Sheahan, and Don Smith, all of whom are graduating.

In the inaugural game of the "B" team season, sharp-shooting Rollie Lyons led his teammates to a 42-35 victory over the Charleston cagers at Charleston, on January 11. The Eastern cubs gave the young Birds quite a tussle, and it was only in the closing minutes of the game that the Cardinals crept away. In this game, Lyons netted 15 points.

I.S.N.U. 44—Clinton Y.M.C.A. 38. On January 25, the Clinton Y team journeyed to Normal and was defeated by the Jay Vees in a high scoring game. The half-time score was 24-20 in favor of the Redbirds. Lyons and Dossett were high scorers in this fray, scoring 13 and 15 points respectively.

I.S.N.U. 39—Charleston 22. The "B" team made it three straight when they overwhelmed the young Easterners for the second time. Dossett and Lyons once again were the scoring aces, notching 13 and 9 points respectively. Senior Leonard Keefe played a fine game at center, in addition to scoring 6 points.

I.S.N.U. 33—Clinton Y.M.C.A. 38. On February 10, the Clinton "Y" team returned the defeat handed them by the Normal fledglings. The game, played at Clinton, was a close, hard-fought affair, with never more than a few points separating the two teams. In this game, for Normal, Mathews contributed heavily in the scoring while trying to stave off defeat.

I.S.N.U. 41—Chanute Field 25. The soldiers of Chanute Field were met, and taken into camp by a flock of eagle-eyed Redbirds. Leonard Keefe turned on his shooting eye and scored 13 times. Mathews, a freshman prospect, sank seven field goals and one free throw for a total of 15 points.

I.S.N.U. 37—St. Bede Academy 26. On February 19, the Birds journeyed to LaSalle-Peru to meet the cagers of St. Bede Academy. The Normal men held the lead from the start. The half-time score was 26-10. Scoring was fairly well distributed in this game, with Mathews notching 12 points, Keefe scoring 10, White and Lyons 6 each. Lehwald played a fine defensive game at guard.

I.S.N.U. 23—St. Bede 24. The lads from LaSalle-Peru came to Normal for a return game with the Jay Vees and avenged themselves for the previous setback at the hands of the Birds with a thrilling 24-23 decision over Normal. At the half, 11-7 in favor of the visitors. The Birds, in this first half, had scored only two field goals, one each by Keefe and Dossett. Keefe also contributed two free throws in this period, while the seventh point was accounted for by Mathew's free throw. In the second half, Lyons dumped in 4 baskets and 2 free throws, but the game ended with St. Bede one point ahead.

I.S.N.U. 29—Chanute Field 39. In the final game of the season, the fledglings met the Soldiers in a return game, and for the second straight time, Normal Juniors were defeated. Chanute Field held a 25-11 advantage at half time, and altho the gap was somewhat diminished in the second half, the Soldiers were victorious by a comfortable ten point margin.

To make wrestling an important winter season sport was the aim of Coach Eugene Hill at opening of the 1935-36 school year. Toward that end he achieved marked success through the media of his coaching talents and promotional ability.

Intra-mural wrestling served as an excellent elimination field and training ground for varsity material. Several trials cut the squad and eleven grapplers were picked to comprise the team. Eight of this select eleven competed in five dual meets and in the conference championship tournament.

In the first meet of the year held here on February 1, the championship Wheaton outfit tossed the Red Birds to the tune of 23-9. Only Bob Kile, Ed Lesnick and George Redden managed to end up on top for the Normal aggregation.

With this experience behind them the Cardinal clan swept the four remaining duals. Both Wesleyan and Wright Junior College of Chicago were bested twice. The Titans took the count, 28-10, at McCormick Gymnasium on February 15, and ten days later they were victimized to the extent of 27½ to 4½ on their home mat. After succumbing here to the tune of 33-3 on February 29, Wright Junior College fell again at Chicago the following week by a 24-8 score.

Wheaton repeated for the fifth consecutive year to retain the state championship with a 43 point total. The tournament was held at Wheaton on March 14. Seventeen points behind in second place was Normal, while DeKalb took third honors with 18. Six teams competed for top honors. By winning the 145 pound crown, Ben May was the only Normalite to drag back a championship.

Ten letters were awarded by the athletic board at the end of the season. Captain Winfield Bates topped this list with other letters going to: Arley Gillette, 118 pounder; James Custer, 126 pounder; George Redden, 135 pounder; Ben May, 145 pounder; J. Melrose Olson, 155 pounder; Ed Lesnick, 165 pounder; Bob Kile, 175 pounder; Bob Koehler, heavyweight; and Charles Hamm, manager. Two squad-men who saw service, but did not win awards were Ben Propeck and Harold Stambach.

With six lettermen and a talented crop of freshmen on hand, Coach Howard Hancock's baseball squad jumped into the thick of the Illinois Intercollegiate conference race with a record of five wins and two defeats against pre-season grapefruit competition.

The monogram winners of last season who returned this spring include: Captain Gene Rhodogheiro, short stop; Bill Aleks, left field; Joe Jacobson, center field; Dick Steigle, right field; Glen Jacquat, first base; and Dale Cline, third base. Besides these men, veteran squad members on tap again are: Ed McCambridge, pitcher; Steve Augustine, catcher; Ralph Burns, Joe Reid and Marvin Busker, outfielders; and Byron Barton, infielder.

One of the reasons for all of the optimism on the new diamond at McCormick Field this year is the early season showing of eight first year men. Coach Hancock was forced to build an entire new pitching staff after Bill Aleks was transferred to the outfield and the frosh who worked the pre-conference games have been the cause of some talk about a Little 19 championship.

Dave Read, Marvin Hamilton, George Sprau, Earl Brandt and Lefty Bixler are the new hurlers who, paired with sophomore McCambridge, will hurl the bulk of the games this spring. Other freshmen who have been appearing in the regular line-up include: George Matthews at second base; Jerry Ingerski in the outfield and infield; and Frank Piazza, catcher.

Playing in weather more suited for ice hockey than baseball, the Cardinals opened the season by administering their annual beating to the University of Wisconsin nine, 5-2, in which the hurlers had all the best of the going.

During the Easter vacation, the Cardinals swung through southern Missouri for a three game series with the Kirksville Teachers College, the Kirksville College of Osteopathy, and St. Louis University. The Cardinal veterans had their hitting clothes on for the first two games and walloped the Teachers, 11-6, and the Osteopaths, 9-7, but fell before St. Louis in a well-played game, 4-1.

Both Kirksville teams paid a return call to Normal and again both were beaten. This time the Osteopaths went down to the tune of 10-6, and the Teachers were decised in the eleventh inning of a pitchers' duel, 3,2, when Augustine's perfect bunt sent Jacobson home with the winning run. St. Louis defeated the Cardinals for the second consecutive time this season, 9-4, as the Red Bird infield fell to pieces in the closing innings of the tiff.

Dave Read limited the Charleston Teachers to seven scattered blows and two runs as Normal chalked up victory number one in the conference chase, 6-2.

Track, perennially strong under the tutelage of Coach Joseph Cogdal, had another well-balanced aggregation on the cinder path and in the field this year.

Handicapped by the worst winter in years, the indoor tracksters, making the most of the limited facilities, entered the State meet with very little training. Only the Armour Relays of the week previous offered the boys preparatory competition. In this meet the mile relay team composed of Gib Veach, Wayne Fasse, Barney Barton, and Captain Bob Miller finished second to the record breaking Wayne quarter. These were Normal's only points.

The following Saturday, April 4, a full squad of Cardinals garnered 22 points and a fourth place in the I.I.A.C. indoor meet at Naperville. North Central copped the title again for the fourth consecutive year. Captain Bob Miller knocked a full second off his record in the 440 yard dash. The second finisher, Gib Veach, also bested the former mark. For the remaining Red Birds points Jim Bush placed second in the two-mile run; Morris Carr took third in the pole vault; Norton Duesing picked up a third in the high hurdles; "Suds" Reid galloped into fourth place in the low hurdles; Bob Smith snagged a fifth in the mile; and Frank Bright salvaged the number five spot in the shot put.

Close to one hundred boys turned out for outdoor track at the first call in April. Much new material combined with a strong returning outfit gave Mentor Cogdal a potentially strong group to work with.

In the sprint department Gib Veach was the only returning letterman. Dick Welty, a veteran from last year, plus Gene Masters and Phil Wike, newcomers, made up a formidable array of dash talent. Masters and Wike teamed also with the veteran Glenn Wilson to form a potent broad-jumping trio.

Only one letterman, Captain Bob Miller, returned for the quarter mile event. This stellar performer was aided by Wayne Fasse from last year's team. To form a record-breaking mile relay team Coach Cogdal combined a sprinter and a hurdler with the aforementioned duo. Gib Veach, the sprinter, is the same lad who took second in the 440 in the State Indoor meet. Only his exceptional ability over the high barriers kept Barney Barton, the hurdler, from becoming one of the best quarter milers in the state.

To take care of the middle distance events Coach Cogdal drew most of his talent from his championship cross-country team. Curt Smith ran the half mile; Bob Smith and Keith Middleton competed in the mile; and Jim Bush, Bill Herbster, George May and George Redden jogged the two mile route. The exceptions to this cross-country dominance were Lester Lange and Jim Flood, both 880 boys. Curt

Smith and Jim Bush rounded into form slowly because of injuries, and Bill Herbster was held back by a tonsil operation. By the end of the season, though, these three, with Bob Smith, gave State Normal a very strong quartet of middle distance runners.

For the hurdle events Normal had three veteran timber-toppers, who, as a trio, are second to none in the conference. Norton Duesing and Barney Barton in the highs and "Suds" Reid in the lows were the three fast, smooth-sailing young men. All three touched the conference mark in their specialties during the season.

Big, handsome Art Miller, Wayne Maurer, Horace Hanes, and Morris Carr were the returning lettermen in the field events. Early in the season Miller broke the school record for the shot. A freshman, Frank Bright, was biggest threat to Art's laurels. In the javelin throw Wayne Maurer again held sway. He has been a leader in this event in the conference for four years. After one year of seasoning Bob Risser came to the fore and set a new school record in the discuss throw. John Kirkton, a freshman, was Risser's closest rival.

In reaching new heights in the high jump Horace Hanes had to defend his past honors against the veteran Harold Ferry and freshman Dick Kavanagh. When it came to pole vaulting Morris Carr still remained the best in Normal's track and field history.

Under the supervision of Director Gene Hill, the finest Intramural Department in the State of Illinois went through a year crammed full of a variety of sports and games. Fully eighty percent of the male student body participated in one or more of the twenty-four distinct events and tournaments held. Beginning in the fall, the activities continued throughout both semesters, providing interesting and keen competition for participants.

Tennis was the first of the Fall tournaments held. Two major tournaments, one for the Freshmen, and one for the Sophomores were held. Byron Blakeman became Freshman tennis champ when he defeated James Flood in the finals by a score of 8-6, 3-6, 6-3. However, due to inclement weather, the Sophomores never determined the champion of their class.

Soccer was the next sport to claim attention, and the Sophomores, led by Maurice Clapper, won the championship.

The Cross Country run, always an interesting event, was held at the close of the Varsity season. Keith Middleton ran the 2 miles in 10 minutes and 27 seconds to win the race handily. Frank Piazza was second, running the distance in 10 minutes and 36 seconds. John Scott took third with a time of 10 minutes and 47 seconds.

Director Gene Hill next announced his Touch Football tourney. A House League grew out of the hobby hour in which a large number participated. The McQueens won the championship. Their roster included: Hodge, Wilson, Blakeman, Kimler, David, Hitchen, Higgins, Schwenn, Steinberg, and Piazza.

The Basketball Tournament was received most enthusiastically by the students of I.S.N.U. Thirty-six teams were entered, and these teams were divided into three divisions: House League, Independent League, and the Organization League.

A Round Robin tournament was run off within each league. At the completion of the round-robin tournament, the two highest teams in each league, determined on a percentage basis, were selected to take part in the championship tournament. These twelve teams entered into an elimination tournament for the school championship. This tournament started on February 10 and ended February 20.

In the semi-final rounds, the Luties met the "N" Club, and the lettermen were victorious. In the other semi-final game, the Berger Battlers met the Flying Clouds, and the latter were victorious.

A terrific tussle ensued in the final game between the "N" Club and the Flying Clouds, but again the latter emerged ahead at the sound of the final gun. The final score was 21-18.

The members of the champion Flying Clouds team were: Feck, Kile, Crawford, Moore, Bowers, H. Evans, W. Evans, and Redden.

As a prelude to the basketball season, a free throw contest was staged. Each contestant was allowed to shoot 100 free throws, and the person putting most balls through the hoop was adjudged the winner. Ross Pearson compiled the best percentage, making 80 out of a possible 100. Pax was second, scoring 79 out of 100. Poklaske was third, making 77 out of 100. Voss was fourth in scoring 76 out of 100.

As usual, the Checker tournament attracted a goodly number of entries, and as was the case last year, the finalists again were Anspaugh and W. Herbster. And this year again, Anspaugh defeated Herbster.

Forty-four entrants were attracted by the Ping-Pong tourney. A straight elimination type of tournament determined the champion. Hare played Michaels in one of the semi-final games and was defeated by the latter. In the other semi-final match, H. Wilson met Anspaugh, and the former was victorious. Michaels met Wilson in the finals, and the diminutive basketball guard won over Wilson.

Ping Pong—Michaels

Bowling was conducted as a hobby hour, and in addition, a bowling tournament was held. In the tourney, each man was to bowl nine lines. Three lines were bowled on each of three dates, and all of the matches were played on the alleys of Old Castle. Bartholomew won with an average of 180. Maurer was second with an average of 159. Unzicker took third with 154. Miller took fifth with 153.

The volley-ball tournament, always a favorite, again attracted a large entry list. There were three leagues: A House League, an Organization League, and an Independent League. The first and second place winners of each League met in the final round. In the semi-finals, Question Marks defeated Smith Hall I, and the "N" Club won over the Glee Club. The Lettermen then went on to the championship by a victory over the Question Marks. The "N" Club roster included: Schwenn, D. Smith, Adams, Hanes, Bick, Deetz, Veach, and Miller.

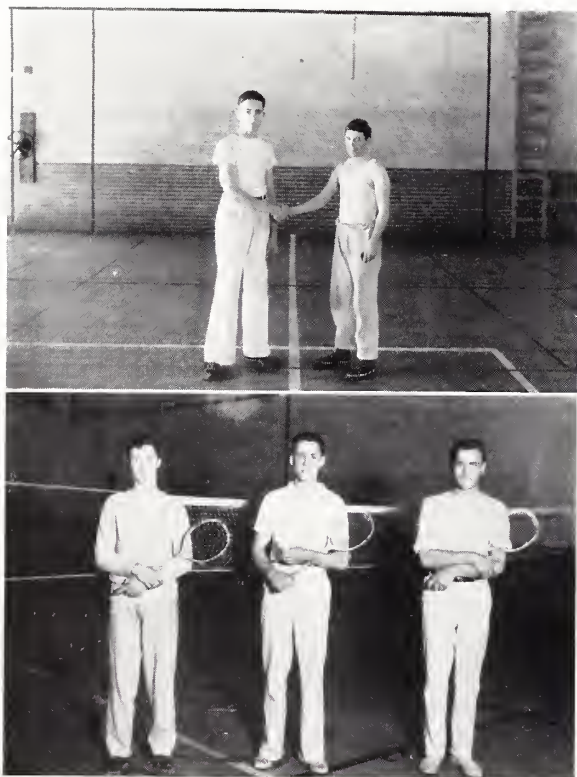

Possibly the most successful tourney of the whole year was the Intramural boxing events. Some real tussles were seen on the ring in McCormick gym, and in the three nights that the fights were staged, some two thousand people saw the encounters.

Milton Pentecost emerged victor in the 118 pound class. Stahl defeated White in the finals of the 126 lb. weight. There was real competition in the 135 lb. class, and Sammy Axtell, clever little fighter won over Hamm in the finals. Dusty Rhodes scored a knockout over Read in the 145 lb. division.

Allen and Wesley staged a slugfast in determining the 155 lb. champion, and Allen outpointed his opponent. Laverne Christenson and Willard Balding met in the finals of the 165 lb. division. Christy was too much for his opponent and scored a technical knockout. Bohles and Barry met in the finals of the light-heavyweight class. This battle was really close, but, in the opinion of the judges, Win Bates and Tom Sutherland, Bohles was awarded the decision. Shearer and Mason Bates met in the finals of the Heavyweight division, and again a rough, hard battle was the result. Bates was awarded the decision.

Wrestling matches in the various weights were held as a feature of the wrestling tournament. Arley Gillet was the winner of the 118 lb. weight. Custer defeated Willard in the 126 lb. division. Keen competition in the 135 lb. class was overcome by Snow. Ben May won the 145 lb. division. There were many entries in the 155 lb. class, and Propeck defeated Hays in the finals. Balding was victor in the 165 lb. division. Stambach won over Piazza in the 175 lb. class, and Koehler was acclaimed heavyweight champ.

Badminton attracted 32 entrants, and as the contest progressed, the semi-finals revealed Bick and Hare opposed to each other, with Odell versus Adams. Bick won over Hare, Adams defeated Odell, and in the finals, Adams was victorious over Bick.

Paddle Tennis, a newcomer to the campus, was well-received by the students. In the tourney held, Poklaske defeated Casteel in one of the semi-final rounds, and Williams won over Case. Poklaske defeated Williams in the finals.

A half-hundred men answered the invitation to participate in the annual Handball tournament. In the quarter finals, Roberts defeated Sutherland, Hazer won out over Yeck, Piazza defeated Tankersley, and Unzicker won over Cozart. Roberts humbled Hazer in the semifinals, and Unzicker defeated Piazza. Roberts met and defeated Unzicker in the finals.

A pinochle tournament, staged in the spring, attracted 15 teams. The team of Mills and Voss was defeated in the finals by the team consisting of Van Ness and Stall.

Bridge enthusiasts had an opportunity to display their skill and cunning, and in the ensuing tourney Roberts and Kidder emerged victorious against their opposition, Hare and Blakeman.

The annual Intramural track meet between the various classes resulted in a win for the Freshmen with 48 points. The Juniors were closely behind with 45 points. The Sophomores were a poor third, garnering but 15 points. Winners of the events were as follows:

In the broad jump, Smith won over Hayes and Briggs. The Freshmen relay team composed of Dalton, McAtee, Van Huss and Smith nosed out the Juniors. Hayes handily won the high-hurdles. E. Smith won out in the 100-yard dash, and Anspaugh won the mile run, with Kile running second. Blotnick won the 440-yard dash and Anspaugh annexed the half-mile run. The javelin hurl was won by Wesley, with Henry a close second. Kile led the pack in the two-mile run. Hayes annexed the low-hurdles.

In other field events, Parsons, Bressner, and Stuhlman tied for first in the pole vault. Ferry, Bressner, and Maurer tied for first in the high jump. McGrew threw the discus a foot further than did Keefe, who took second. Win Bates put the shot farther than any of his opponents, as the concluding event of the two-day track and field meet.

The above material is merely a summary of those sports that have already taken place. Champions are yet to be decided in Tennis, Golf, Archery, Playground ball, and Horseshoes as this goes to press.

Miss Margaret M. Barto,
Head of Department of Physical Education
for Women

To Miss Margaret Murray Barto, the Director of the Department of Physical Education for Women, goes much credit for the wholesome sports and recreational activities offered the women students at Illinois State Normal University. She is the general supervisor of the intramural program, and appoints faculty member heads of sports. Besides her duties as Director of the Department and her regular classes, Miss Barto teaches intramural swimming, tapping, and social dancing.

Besides her duties as instructor of Physical Education and Health Education, Miss Elsie Bergland coaches intramural soccer, baseball, and bowling.

Miss Bernice Frey, instructor of Physical Education and sponsor of the Physical Educational Club, is the assistant head of the intramural program for women.

Miss Esther Hume, instructor in Physical Education and sponsor of the Women's Athletic Association, acts as the general chairman and head of women's intramurals. Her untiring efforts have secured the smooth carrying-out of an adequate intramural program. Miss Hume is the faculty advisor of hockey, basketball, LaCrosse, outings, tumbling, and recreational parties.

Miss Esther Hume,
Director of Women's Intramurals

The Director of Physical Education for the girls of University High School, Miss Katherine Thielen, is also the sponsor of Orchesis.

Miss Alma Wingeier, Director of Physical Education in the Metcalf Training School, teaches intramural golf, and assists in tumbling instruction.

The third annual Women's College Sports Day, given by Illinois State Normal University, was held on this campus on October 12, 1935. This sports day was sponsored by the Women's Physical Education Department and the Women's Athletic Association. Miss Esther Hume, faculty sponsor of the Women's Athletic Association, was faculty chairman, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Robinson, student chairman of the women's intramural program. Miss Margaret Barto, Director of the Women's Physical Education Department, helped make this day a success and was aided by the faculty members of the department, the student members of the department, and the members of the Women's Athletic Association.

The sports day is open to all women on the campus who will participate in the after-school intramural program and meet the physical and participational requirements set up in this program for the benefit of the participants.

The purpose of the sports day is to bring young women together from various colleges and universities, and give them an opportunity to become acquainted through the media of sports and social functions. The sports offered are played entirely for the enjoyment derived—as no recognition of champions is made. The social function at noon in the form of a luncheon brings these women together again in a different situation.

The Women's Athletic Association of Illinois State Normal University held its first Sports Day in October, 1933. It was the first to be held in this part of the state, and it proved such a success that one has been held each year since that date. Since the first sports day held here, several have been held by other colleges and universities in this state.

The day was officially opened by President Fairchild, who extended cordial greetings from the administration and university to all guests at the mass meeting in the women's gymnasium. After the mass, hockey and soccer games were played on the campus and the athletic field of University High School. An archery tournament was held on the archery range and a tennis tournament was played in the Women's gymnasium. Each school represented in team sports played two games and tournaments were run off during the entire morning. Recreational games also were open to anyone who attended the sports day. At noon a luncheon was held in Fell Hall. The head table at this luncheon was composed of the faculty and student representatives of each school, who entered into a discussion with the other representatives on common problems of the Women's Athletic Associations. This round-table discussion has proved very worthwhile. Many helpful suggestions are given which are used in operating intramural programs at the various colleges. After the luncheon the representatives were taken to the Carbondale-I.S.N.U. football game as guests of the school.

The colleges represented were: Southern Illinois Normal University from Carbondale; Eastern Illinois State Teachers College from Charleston; Illinois College from Jacksonville; McKendree College from Lebanon; MacMurray College from Jacksonville; North Central College from Naperville; University of Illinois from Urbana; and Rockford College from Rockford. Illinois Wesleyan University was unable to attend the sport events, but sent a representative to the round table discussion and the luncheon.

The sports days have proved such a worthwhile affair, both from the athletic and social viewpoint, that the Women's Athletic Association has made it an annual affair.

The committees and chairmen responsible for this successful day were: General Chairmen—Miss Hume and Elizabeth Robinson; Publicity—Margaret Watson; Social—Eloise Bordner; Invitation—Virginia Deetz; Registration, Information, and Reception—Doris Angleton; Checking—Marjorie Hedges; Activity—Vangine Sieks; Hockey—Mildred Brubaker; Soccer—Marcella De Witt; Archery—Eleanor Moninger; Tennis—Arria Jean Pinson; Recreational Games—Mildred Carroll; Equipment—Grace Mikel; Grounds Equipment—Madeline Ivitmeyer; and Posters—Eleanor Allen.

The Bloomington Daily Pantagraph, The Normalite and the Chicago Tribune ran articles of the event which furthered the publicity of the day.

By Marcella De Witt—With the problem of leisure time activities becoming more and more important, Illinois State Normal University is striving through her Physical Education Department and allied organizations to offer a wholesome solution for all women students.

The women's intramural program is sponsored by the Department of Physical Education for Women and the Women's Athletic Association. Each activity offered is supervised and coached by a member of the staff of Physical Education for women. Student leaders are elected by the Women's Athletic Association to assist in planning and carrying out a recreational program. These student leaders, together with the officers of the Women's Athletic Association, make up the executive board which works with the Department of Physical Education through their sponsor, Miss Esther Hume.

The recreational program offered to the women includes hockey, soccer, lacrosse, basketball, volleyball, tumbling, swimming, bowling, archery, tennis, golf, baseball, recreational games, outings, social dancing, tap dancing, and natural dancing. The Physical Education Department is assisted by the Women's Athletic Association, the Physical Education Club, and Orchesis in providing this broad program. All women in school are invited to participate in the sports and activities offered, and in many cases equipment is also provided for the participants.

The Women's Athletic Association has dispensed with a points system, with the giving of letter awards, and with the honorary plaque. The organization is endeavoring to provide a program of sports that will be entered into with the idea of "play for play's sake," rather than with the idea of "working for an award." However, honorary teams for each sport are picked, and the requirements set-up for members of these teams are as follows: the player must be a member of the Women's Athletic Association; must have paid her dues; and must have attended at least half the meetings; she must be an enrolled student, carrying at least three-fourths of the college load, and must be passing in all her work; she must have a medical permit, and must have attended the required number of practices in the sport; and she must be chosen by the committee governing that sport, on the basis of her skill. These requirements also hold for members of special teams that represent Illinois State Normal University at other colleges and universities.

The sports offered during the first semester provided a wide variety to meet the demands of a large number of women. Hockey, soccer, archery, tennis, and lacrosse were organized during the first nine weeks and basketball was offered during the second nine weeks.

EMMA DOUBET was head of hockey, and Miss Hume and Miss Frey acted as the faculty supervisors and coaches. There were four hockey squads organized and captained by MARCELLA DE WITT, GRACE MIKEL, VIOLA VOGT, and SUE WHITE. In the tournament at the end of the practice season, VOGT'S team defeated WHITE'S team in the final game to win the championship.

An invitation from the Chicago Field Hockey Association was accepted by the Physical Education Department for Women to participate in their Hockey Play Day. Normal sent two teams. The honorary hockey squad was invited to a hockey spread at Illinois Wesleyan University after the hockey season was completed.

Soccer was organized with GRACE KARL as student head and Miss Bergland as faculty sponsor. Three squads were organized, and the captains elected were: WILMA STRAIN, JANE WARD, and MARCELLA DE WITT. The team captained by DE WITT won the tournament held at the end of the season.

Lacrosse was played this year for the first time on this campus. MARTHA SCHLINGER was the student head of the sport and Miss Hume did the coaching duties. There were enough girls out to form two squads, and the time was spent in learning the skills of the game.

Beginning tennis was offered last fall, and one hundred twenty-five women took lessons. Miss Barto taught the group and was assisted by ARRIA JEAN PINSON.

Social Dancing Class

About twenty women participated in archery in the fall. The activity was not formerly organized. Miss Frey, assisted by ELEANOR MONINGER, was faculty head of archery.

Basketball for women is still one of the most popular winter sports, and this year drew a hundred sixty women. Miss Hume and Miss Frey coached the group, assisted by DOROTHY LEONARD and MILDRED CARROLL. This large group was divided into two small groups; one of the small groups met on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and the other met on Mondays and Wednesdays. The captains of the teams in the two groups were: VELMA COOPER, ALICE CROUT, SUE WHITE, PEG ALDRICH, VERLA MAE HILL, BETH ATKINSON, OPAL BROWN, MADELINE STEWART, MILDRED SCHULTZE, CATHERINE WALL, MARIAN ETZEN, and W. GERDSEN. At the end of the practice season a tournament was held in each group with HILL'S team winning in the Tuesday-Thursday group, and ETZEN'S team winning in the Monday-Wednesday group.

Normal sent a basketball team to represent her at the MacMurray College Sports Day on February 22nd; and later, on March 21st, two basketball teams were sent to the DeKalb Sports Day.

During the first nine weeks of the second semester volleyball, bowling, tumbling, and swimming were offered.

The volleyball group was large enough for five teams

The squads practiced two nights a week under the direction of Miss Frey as faculty head and MARGORIE HEDGES as student head. To close the season, a round-robin tournament was held.

Two special volleyball teams represented Illinois State Normal University at the DeKalb Sports Day on March 21.

Bowling has become one of the popular sports with the women at Normal. The activity was offered two nights a week at Pat Harkins' Bowling Alleys in Bloomington. The group was divided into beginning and advanced players; the beginners spent their time learning the skills, while the advanced bowlers held a ladder tournament after a short practice period. MARCELLA DE WITT won the tournament, with FRANCES COLE taking second place. FRANCE O'BRIEN and MARGARET LAWBAUGH were student heads of bowling and Miss Bergland was the faculty advisor.

MARGARET LAWBAUGH represented Normal in bowling at the MacMurray Sports Day on February 22.

An unusually large group was interested in tumbling this year. The group met once a week, under the direction of Miss Hume and Miss Wingeier, assisted by JANE WARD. The beginning girls spent their time learning the fundamental skills; the advanced girls worked on stunts and pyramid building.

Swimming has become one of the very popular sports at Normal, in spite of the fact that there is no swimming pool. It was necessary to limit the number taking swimming be-

The pool at the Y.W.C.A. in Bloomington was rented for two nights a week; the intermediate group of sixty swam on Wednesday nights, and the beginning group of ninety swam on Thursday nights. These classes were taught by Miss Barto, assisted by ELEANOR ALLEN. Advanced swimmers were permitted to take dips at any time they wished.

A swimming team composed of ADELLE FISHER, ELEANOR ALLEN, MARCELLA HOWARDSON, and ELEANOR MONINGER were sent to the MacMurray College Sports Day to represent Normal.

Baseball, golf, tennis and archery took the spotlight during the last weeks of the second semester.

Baseball drew the interest of sixty girls. Six teams were organized with JOSEPHINE RICOLO, IDA LAGE, VERLA MAE HILL, MARIAN SWANK, BETH ATKINSON and EVELYN GOURLEY acting as captains. Miss Bergland was the coach of the group, and was assisted by VIOLA VOGT. A tournament was planned after the practice season.

The first call to golf was answered by one hundred fifty women, both beginning and advanced golfers. Miss Wingeier and Miss Bally, faculty heads, took over the coaching duties, and were assisted by GRACE MIKEL. The beginners were given eight lessons on the campus, and then were taken to the Maplewood Country Club for a few practices. Near the close of the practice periods, all were given free tickets to use at the Maplewood Country Club at their leisure. The advanced golfers were given tickets at the beginning of the season, and used the golf course from the outset.

Spring tennis was as popular as ever this year. The intermediate and advanced classes were fed from the beginning class held in the fall.
